KUROPATKIN IS AMONG SLAIN

Report Says 70,000 Russians Are Cut Off by Nogi's Army.

POSITION HELPLESS

Russia Agrees to First Ten Days of August for the Peace Negotiations.

INTERNAL DISORDERS GROW

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 28.—A rumor spread throughout the city last night that Gen. Kuropatkin had been killed. Another rumor was that 70,000 Russians had been cut off by Gen. Nogi's army and that Kuropatkin had been taken prisoner. Nothing confirmatory has been received either by the general staff or in press dispatches.

Mobilizations have been ordered in Tsarskoe Selo, 15 miles from St. Petersburg, and Volmar, in the government of Livonia.

The foreign office has issued a communication confirming the statement that Russia has accepted the first 10 days in August as the time within which the first meeting of the peace plenipotentiaries will take place. The precise date depends on the time of the arrival at Washington of the Japanese representatives.

The military experts take anything but a hopeful view of Gen. Linevitch's situation. They do not believe he can be surrounded, but apparently do not consider the possibility of a Russian victory. Linevitch's retirement to Harbin and the isolation of Vladivostok seem to be regarded as foregone conclusions when Field Marshal Oyama strikes.

According to the latest news from the front, which is 36 hours old, Oyama, after forcing back the Russian right and center, transferred his weight against the left, compelling the Russians to give ground there also.

Disorder Is Spreading.

The wave of disorder rolling over Russia has appeared at Odessa, where a general strike, accompanied by bloodshed and disorders has broken out. There were several collisions between the military and the strikers Monday night and yesterday in two of which volleys were fired by the troops. No report of the extent of the casualties has been received, the official statement dealing only with the initial encounter Monday night, declaring that two persons were killed therein.

There was another encounter yesterday afternoon and a number of attacks were made on individual policemen. A press dispatch received last night said about 400 armed workmen barricaded a suburb and repulsed the attack of a company of Cossacks. Reinforcements of three companies of Cossacks were sent to the suburb, but the result of their attack on the strikers is not yet known.

A telegram to the Official Agency from Lodz gives the number of killed and those who died of their wounds on Friday as 164. It adds that others were killed Saturday and Sunday and that the complete number of victims cannot be stated definitely. Other accounts give a total estimate of 500 dead at Lodz.

WARSAW, June 27.—A secret meeting of 200 Socialists in the forest of Zoierez, near Lodz, was surprised by Cossacks at noon today. Eighteen of the Socialists were wounded and 180 arrested.

The authorities received information that the meeting was being held and sent a squadron of Cossacks, who surrounded the forest and fired into the meeting. The wounded were taken to hospitals at Lodz, and those arrested were sent to the prison at Lenszyca, 20 miles distant.

The authorities are making an insistent search for the leaders. In the course of the search today a number of persons were killed or wounded. All the prisons are full to overflowing, no less than 672 persons, mostly Jews, having been arrested during the last 24 hours. It is expected that a state of siege will be proclaimed, as great riots are anticipated during the mobilization.

The laborers on 32 plantations in the government of Podolia have struck and it is feared the harvest will be lost. The peasants in the government of Hovno are forcefully occupying pasture and other lands of the proprietors of estates.

News Embargo at Lodz.

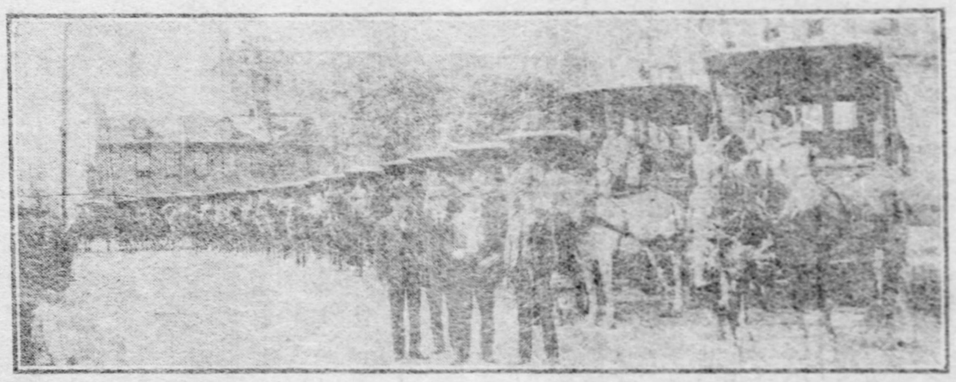
The situation in the city proper was more quiet today. All the Polish papers this evening unanimously condemn the strikes and their resultant disturbances, which they say can only lead to bloodshed and distress.

A complete embargo has been placed on all news from Lodz and beyond the meager official announcement that the day passed quietly nothing is known as to the developments in the riot-ridden city. Conservative citizens claim the situation in Russian Poland shows a little improvement.

ELIZABETGRAD, June 27.—On account of the threatening nature of the Agrarian movement in the adjoining districts, the governor of Kherson, M. Lewaschew, has arrived here and Cossacks have been summoned. Many landlords are fleeing from their estates into the city.

KARKOFF, June 27.—Troops were dispatched from here today to three adjoining districts where the peasants are sacking the estates and burning buildings.

REVIEW OF NEW POSTAL WAGONS AND TEAMS



NEW COMPANY TO CARRY THE MAILS

Postmasters Holliday and Francies Inspect Wagons and Horses and Are Pleased.

SERVICE IS TO START JULY 1

After July 1 the Pittsburgh and Allegheny mails will be hauled to and from the depots and between the postoffices of the two cities by the Excelsior Express and Standard Cab Company, which has been awarded the contract for four years. The company's bid was something more than $100,000.

In anticipation of the new business the company has secured 20 new wagons and 27 of the finest horses that could be purchased. This excellent new equipment was inspected yesterday afternoon in the Allegheny Diamond by Postmasters George L. Holliday and John Francies and Postoffice Inspector Frank O'Brien. The long string of handsome new wagons and the unusual good looks of the horses attracted the attention of thousands of people as the procession went from the company's stables in Liberty street, opposite Union depot, over to the Allegheny postoffice.

To buy horses to meet the government's requirements is a task that calls for good judgment and weeks of patience and hard work. Joseph Ford, manager for the express company, spent weeks in Ohio, Virginia and Kentucky looking for animals, and attended all the local sales before he had the quota needed.

Postmaster Holliday, after making a critical inspection of horses and wagons, said:

"This is the finest equipment of the kind I have ever seen. Pittsburgh and Allegheny can be proud of Uncle Sam's horses and wagons now. Mr. Francies and Mr. O'Brien are also thoroughly satisfied with everything and will be glad to see the new equipment put into service next week.

THREE POSSES SEARCH FOR GIRL'S ASSAILANT

Close to One Hundred and Fifty Men, Armed With Revolvers, Guns and Ropes, Engage in Hunt.

Three posses of men, armed with revolvers and shotguns and each posse carrying a rope with a noose, were searching every corner of Hays borough and the country lying along the Brownsville road up to an early hour this morning, seeking the assailant of a little girl. About 150 men in all made up the searching force.

The main party was headed by Thomas Echman, chief of police of Hays borough. Others had volunteer leaders, but there was no doubt in the case of any of them that the finding of the assailant would mean a lynching.

Annie Green, the 12-year-old daughter of Jacob Green, a retired and well-to-do farmer, was the victim. A man supposed to have come from the gang of men constructing the extension of the West Side belt to reach the Union railroad, was the assailant. With some candy he enticed the girl into the woods near her home Monday afternoon.

Yesterday her condition became so serious that the physician in charge feared for her life. When the men who live in the section returned from work last evening and heard of the situation, the posses were soon organized and the search begun.

The girl was able to give some description of the man and stated that he had gone up the Brownsville road. The description and the general direction he had taken were the only clues the searchers had. They started to bring out every man at work in the camps and were confident that they knew enough to recognize the man.

The fact that a similar assault occurred near the same place about a year ago added to their wrath.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH A STRING OF BANKS

NEW YORK, June 27.—(Special.)—The controlling interest of the stock of the Mechanics and Traders bank of New York today passed into the hands of E. R. Thomas, O. F. Thomas and R. Livingston Beeckman. This movement is said to be the beginning of an extensive plan to establish banks at many points near New York, but Mr. Thomas would not discuss the future of the bank.

SKIES ARE CLEARING IN MOROCCAN MATTER

Germany's Reply to French Note Disarms Suspicion—Conference Likely to Be Held.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PARIS, June 27.—Germany's reply to the French note on the subject of Morocco was presented during a conference between Prince Radolin, the German ambassador, and Premier Rouvier at the foreign office today.

While most friendly in form and entirely lacking a peremptory tone, Germany's response none the less maintains the position that the Moroccan question must be regulated by a conference of the powers without any agreement in advance limiting the scope of such conference. This was accompanied by the presentation of Germany's general point of view in such an amicable spirit as to disarm the suspision entertained concerning Germany's ulterior motives.

It is thought Premier Rouvier will be prepared to terminate the controversy either by accepting the conference or submitting counter proposals. He informed Prince Radolin no decision would be taken until the German note had been submitted to the council of ministers at its regular meeting next Friday. It is the general expectation an agreement will be reached on the basis of a conference.

Tension in official quarters has notably diminished. Reports from foreign capitals that France recognizes Germany's influence in Persia as compensation for the renunciation of that country's claims in Morocco is denied by French officials. In German quarters it is also said Persia has not figured in the note.

IMPROVEMENT NOTICEABLE IN MR. HAY'S CONDITION

Secretary of State Passes Comfortable Day—The President Sends a Reassuring Message.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEWBURY, N. H., June 27.—The condition of Secretary of State John Hay continues favorable tonight, after a comfortable day. Dr. Fred L. Murphy of Boston remained at the secretary's home tonight. The cold, wet weather has proved a slight drawback, but notwithstanding the dampness, Mr. Hay's condition has improved noticeably since Sunday night.

Mrs. Hay felt greatly encouraged today, and sent a telegram to Bayne Whitney, her son-in-law, advising him and Mrs. Whitney to sail for Europe as they intended. Among telegrams received was the following:

"White House, Washington.

"To Mrs. John Hay:

"I cannot but be concerned about your telegram, but am entirely confident the trouble is but evanescent.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

WILL DECIDE ON METHOD.

Democratic State Committee to Settle Question of Supreme Bench Nomination.

HARRISBURG, June 27.—(Special.)—Whether a candidate for justice of the supreme court shall be nominated by the Democratic state committee or by a state convention will be decided by the state committee at its meeting here tomorrow.

State Chairman Hall, who came here from Ridgway this evening to attend the meeting, said he thought the committee had the authority to make a nomination, but that it would be left to the committee to decide. Hall also said that if it should be decided not to nominate by committee, the state convention would meeet in this city August 16. If the committee decides it has the right to nominate, a meeting for that purpose will be held later.

LULL IN NEGOTIATIONS.

Peace Movement Will Take a Rest, at Least Until the President Reaches Oyster Bay.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—With the president away from Washington, peace negotiations today entered on a period of inactivity which may continue until the president reaches Oyster Bay. There is no confirmation here of a report from Paris that negotiations for an armistice have been formally opened.

It is expected the next step will be the official announcement of plenipotentiaries. It is believed the Japanese plenipotentiaries will be able to reach Washington the first week in August, if not by August 1.

H. J. Heinz to Go to Japan.

TORONTO, June 27.—At the meetings attending the close of the Sunday school conferences tonight it was announced that H. J. Heinz of Pittsburgh would go to Japan next year, with others, as a commissioner on Sunday school work and would arrange to place work there.

Warns Against Fusion.

BEAVER, June 27.—(Special.)—Republican County Chairman C. H. Stone today sent out letters to the Republican county committeemen urging them to do what they can to head off the fusion movement in the county.

GRAPHIC STORY OF THE BATTLE OF MUKDEN

Francis McCullagh, the correspondent of the New York Herald with the Russian army, was in the battle of Mukden. He was captured, along with several thousands of Russians, and placed in a Japanese prison. Mr. McCullagh has written a graphic story of one of the greatest battles in the world's history. The news reports have not told half of the tragic events of that slaughter. All told, Mr. McCullagh's story contains 50,000 words. It will be printed in two installments, the first in next Sunday's Gazette. Illustrations from photographs taken by the correspondent will give an idea of conditions. Don't fail to get the great war supplement of next Sunday's Gazette.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL SAILS THE OCEAN

Mary D. Fulton Learned of Her Success Just Before Leaving New York.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY

"O. K. for High school. Pleasant journey."

This telegram was received last midnight in New York by little Mary D. Fulton from her father, Dr. Henry D. Fulton of 5149 Butler street, Pittsburgh.

Miss Fulton was one of 1,461 candidates for admission to the High school. She sails from New York this morning for a tour of Europe, with several of her girl cousins, under the chaperonage of Mrs. Bissell. Mary was very anxious to know her fate before she left the country and made her father promise to telegraph her if the list of successful candidates was handed down in time. Dr. Fulton kept a vigilant watch, but had given up hope when he telephoned The Gazette last night. It was not long after when he sent the telegram east, and Mary D. Fulton will sail to Europe as a typical American High school girl.

Largest Class on Record.

Never before in the history of Pittsburgh had there been so many applicants for admission to the High school, and of the total of 1,461, 1,282 passed, 125 are entitled to re-examination, the papers of five are incomplete and 46 failed. Last year there were 1,253 applicants, of whom 1,125 passed, 55 were entitled to re-examination, seven papers were incomplete and 18 failed.

As usual many of the schools passed all their candidates. The Brushton, Forbes, Grant, Homewood, Lawrence and Riverside sub-districts were in this class. Eighteen other schools were without a failure, each of them, however, having one or more re-examinations. In the parochial schools two were without failure, although each had re-examinations.

The following is a list of the successful candidates by schools, showing the number in each class, the number passed, to be re-examined, failed or incomplete:

Allen, Thirty-first Ward.

Class, 32; passed, 31; to be re-examined, 1—Edna C. Binder, Mabel F. Benton, Alma W. Binder, John J. Carney, Rebecca J. Duvall, Mae E. Davies, Edna M. Davis, George J. Edwards, Earl W. COULDN'T FACE THE EVIDENCE

Three Philadelphians Are Sent to Jail for Election Frauds.

ALL PLEADED GUILTY

District Attorney Has Proofs That Conspiracy Was Hatched In a Negro's House.

COL. POTTER USES HIS AX

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Press Building, PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 27.

Three men were sent to prison today as a result of the investigation of election frauds in the Twenty-first division of the Thirteenth ward. Rather than face the evidence that had been secured against them, all three pleaded guilty to the charges against them and threw themselves on the mercy of the court.

Judge Carr sentenced William Yost, judge of election, to five months' imprisonment and a fine of $500. Barney Strauss, an inspector, received a similar sentence, and William Glenn, the inspector's clerk, was sent to jail for four months and fined $250. Eugene Yates, son of Magistrate Yates, and Charles Moore, the majority inspector, who were indicted at the same time as the other defendants, were discharged.

More than 300 witnesses had been subpoenaed for the trial by the prosecution, but none of them got a chance to testify. In outlining the case to the court, however, District Attorney Bell made an explanation of the testimony that was to have been presented to prove the men on trial guilty of conspiracy to stuff the ballot box and to make false returns.

In the sensational testimony that was to have been presented was the fact that a negro woman played a prominent part in the conspiracy. She is Fioretta Mason, wife of Preston Mason, at whose house District Attorney Bell declared the conspiracy to violate the election laws was hatched. It was to have been shown that many of the names of those whom the returns indicated as having voted were in the woman's handwriting.

Before the cases were called, District Attorney Bell and Thomas W. Barlow and Thomas Raeburn White, counsel for the committee of seventy, and John R. K. Scott, attorney for the defendants, held a conference with Judge Carr. As a result of this it was announced that if Yost, Strauss and Glenn pleaded guilty, Yates and Moore would be set at liberty.

Col. Sheldon Potter, the "reform" director of public safety, this morning sent the following letter to Chief Assistant Fire Marshal W. F. Wilkins:

Dear Sir—My information concerning your career is such that I shall be obliged to ask for your resignation. Kindly forward it at once.

On receipt of the letter Wilkins stepped down and out.

"I do not mean to imply any reflection upon Wilkins' private career," said the director, "nor to criticise his work as fire marshal. Ask Wilkins, and he may tell you what my reference was. He knows."

Wilkins called at Director Potter's office this afternoon, but the latter official would not explain the reason for removing the subordinate except to say the objection he found to Wilkins' record dated prior to his appointment as assistant fire marshal.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

THE GOVERMENT BUYS SITE.

Pennsylvania Railroad Sells Ground for New Postoffice at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will in a few days receive a United States treasury warrant for $1,700,000 in payment for the site for the new postoffice at Eighth avenue, between Thirty-first and Thirty-third streets. Secretary Shaw, Attorney General Moody and Postmaster General Cortelyou, on behalf of the government, and President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania have agreed upon this price.

Officers of the department of justice are now at work preparing the deed for the transfer of the property. This would have been done some time ago, but there was a difference of opinion in regard to the title. The ground beneath the surface will be used for a railroad station.

PATTISON IS IN THE LEAD

His Forces Hold Together Despite Tom Johnson's Open Opposition.

ISSUES A STATEMENT

Declares He Is Certain to Be Nominated on the Second Ballot at Farthest.

WELTY IS GAINING VOTES

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

COLUMBUS, O., June 27.—John M. Pattison late tonight broke the silence he had maintained for over 24 hours. In his behalf and at his direction, former Senator Hugh L. Nichols issued the following statement:

"There is no longer any doubt as to the result. Mr. Pattison will be nominated on the second ballot at the farthest, with a lively probability that a second ballot will never be had. This result, it is claimed by the country counties, will be attained without counting on a single vote from Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Montgomery, Franklin or Lucas counties. The Pattison organization is in perfect order, and the result cannot be changed."

This statement was issued with the knowledge and admission that the insurance magnate had suffered the loss of a score of votes in the Fourth district because of the violent opposition there to State Chairman Harvey C. Garber. It was issued despite the reverberation through the corridors of the Southern hotel of the constant cry of the opposition, "Pattison cannot be elected."

Attack Is a Failure.

It was the sole attack made on the leader in the contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Bordering on party treason, nevertheless the blow was delivered and repeated that Pattison could not poll the full party strength, that the liberal element, always a large factor in a party which years ago was alternately as a whisky party, would run from him as from an epidemic; that he would lose the city vote, and that even party leaders in the cities would bolt him.

This attack utterly failed to stampede the Pattison forces. It was successful only in one quarter. It captured Mayor Tom L. Johnson. The Cleveland leader told Pattison he would not be for him because his nomination would make the temperance question the paramount issue and would divide the party. The news that Johnson was definitely against Pattison was quickly bruited about and raised the spirits of the opposition.

If Johnson, when at 9 o'clock this morning he gives his final instructions to his 61 delegates, is still opposed to Pattison, the leader of the contest cannot be nominated on the first ballot. If Pattison holds his strength over night he will have 30 to 275 votes on the first ballot. John C. Welty will have 175 to 200 to start with. A lead such as that will be hard to stop.

Welty Gains Votes.

But the opposition believes it will stop it. Welty gained votes during the day and evening and is confident the tide has turned that Pattison cannot be nominated and that on the break from the favorite sons the nomination will come to him.

Welty's strongest hold is that he is the second choice of a large number of Pattison delegates. Pattison cannot throw his delegates en bloc to any of the minor candidates. If the Pattison forces can be broken down, enough of them will jump to Welty to put him over the line.

The Welty men made two plays today. One was to break down the Pattison organization by night. This failed, though Mercer county left Pattison, caucused in Welty's headquarters and indorsed him, and he captured votes in Allen, Shelby, Morgan, Perry and Adams counties.

The second play was to prevent Pattison's nomination on the first ballot. This appears to have succeeded by driving from him the Cuyahoga delegation, and insured a scramble for the nomination on the floor of the convention. During the evening Judge R. R. McCann of Dayton loomed up as the most promising candidate in case Pattison and Welty should accomplish mutual destruction.

At the district caucuses a new state central committee was chosen, control of which is claimed by the conservatives. The committee is distinctly anti-Johnson.

The permanent organization committee was contested by Welty, under whose orders temporary chairman, M. A. Dougherty, a Pattison man, was turned down and Judge Curtis C. Williams of Columbus was made permanent chairman of the convention.

The committee on permanent organization tonight decided to report in favor of Judge Curtis C. Williams of Columbus, for permanent chairman; Rodney J. Diegle of Sandusky, for [illegible] secretary, and Joe Goldsoll of Cleveland, for sergeant-at-arms. Judge Williams is an avowed supporter of Welty.

The platform committee consists of M. H. Ingalls, Cincinnati; Tom L. Johnson, Cleveland; Harlan Cleveland, Cincinnati; A. P. Sandles, Putnam county; E. B. Finley, Crawford; N. M. Wolf, Richland, and Charles E. Belcher, Lawrence.

Races Run, but There Was No Betting.

ST. LOUIS, June 27.—Sheriff Herpel, with a force of deputies, was present at Delmar race track today, and announced that any attempt at betting or bookmaking would result in arrests. The races were run, but there was no betting, and the betting ring was deserted. Comparatively few spectators were present.

Canal Surveyors at New Castle.

NEW CASTLE, PA., June 27.—(Special.)—Surveyors in the employ of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Canal Company arrived here today and are quartered at a local hotel. They are making a preliminary survey of the route proposed for the canal from Pittsburgh to the Lakes.

SENATOR MITCHELL DOES NOT GO ON THE WITNESS STAND

Makes No Attempt to Disprove Damaging Testimony Given Against Him by His Former Partner and Secretary.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PORTLAND, ORE., June 27.—United States Senator John H. Mitchell, in the land fraud cases today, did not take the stand and attempt to disprove the testimony against him of his former partner, Judge A. H. Tanner, and his former private secretary, Harry C. Robertson. The defense rested within an hour after the court had been called to order.

The only witness examined by the defense was J. A. Martin of Portland, who testified he had asked the senator to secure the establishment of the harbor lines several years ago in order that a wharf might be constructed. The senator did as requested, he said, and refused all compensation for his services.

Former Senator John M. Thurston, counsel for Senator Mitchell, addressed the court as to the instructions to be given the jury when the case was sent to it. He claimed a close similarity to the case of Senator Burton of Kansas and maintained that while the indictment charged the direct receipt of money from Fred A. Kribs by Mitchell, the most that could be shown was the indirect receipt of money from the bank, and that while the indictment alleged the receipt of checks, this did not occur, as the checks were purchased by the bank and the money later indirectly received by Mitchell was not Kribs' money, but that of the bank. District Attorney Heney maintained the indirect receipt of money was all that was contemplated by the statute.

Attorney A. S. Bennett of counsel for defendant asked Judge DeHaven to instruct the jury that in case it was shown Mitchell received money without knowing it was unlawfully acquired, a later knowledge of this by defendant could not lay him open to the charge of crime.

PRESIDENT JOINS HIS CLASSMATES

Comes Back to Harvard Not as Chief Magistrate, but as Loyal Alumnus.

VISITS ALL HIS OLD HAUNTS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., June 27.—Joining with his former college mates today in celebrating the Twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of their class from Harvard, President Roosevelt returned to his alma mater, not as the chief magistrate of the nation, but as a private citizen and a loyal Harvard alumnus. Although the old university would have been glad to pay him all the honor due his high office, it was the president's request that he be regarded merely as a member of the class of '80 rather than as the president of the United States. Nevertheless students, alumni, and the citizens of Cambridge united in giving him a hearty greeting as he drove through the streets of the university city.

Arriving in Boston a quarter before 7 o'clock this morning the president was driven to the Cambridge residence of the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, Episcopal bishop of Massachusetts, where he is being entertained. The bishop is president of the Harvard alumni association. Among those present at breakfast, in addition to the president and Private Secretary Loeb, were the president's son Kermit, who came from Groton school; President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard university; Judge Francis C. Lowell, of the United States circuit court, and the Rev. Samuel Crothers, pastor of the First Parish (Unitarian) church of Cambridge.

In the forenoon President Roosevelt visited the rooms of the Alpha Delta Phi society, the Harvard stadium and the Chestnut Hill residence of George C. Lee, the father of the president's first wife. He was then driven to the Oakley Country club, in Watertown, where the class of '80 held an informal reunion. A photograph of the class was taken, also a photograph of the members of the class who belonged to the same student dining club as did the president. Of the 166 members of the class of '80, 130 have registered at class headquarters, representing nearly every state in the Union.

Returning from the Oakley Country club, the president was driven to the rooms of the Porcelain club, an organization of Harvard students, where he stayed about half an hour. He then returned to Bishop Lawrence's home, where he put on evening clothes and was driven to the Hotel Somerset in Boston, for the banquet of the class of '80. It was late in the evening when the party returned to Cambridge.

As the president's carriage was driven out of Bishop Lawrence's yard this forenoon on the trip to the rooms of the Alpha Delta Phi society, the rain poured in torrents. The president, however, insisted the hood of the carriage be lowered that the people who had gathered to see him might not be disappointed, and rode through the rain apparently not in the least disconcerted.

President Roosevelt was accompanied on his drive by a secret service officer and a squad of mounted policemen. After visiting the stadium, the police escort was dismissed temporarily and the president's carriage was unattended from the stadium to Chestnut Hill and from thence to the Oakley Country club. President Roosevelt will remain here until 2 o'clock Thursday morning.

Secretary of War William H. Taft arrived from New Haven this afternoon. He will attend the Harvard commencement exercises tomorrow, and it is expected an honorary degree will be conferred upon him by the university.

AFFAIRS OF EQUITABLE CONSIDERED BY COMMITTEE

Representatives of Policy-Holders Before Lately Purchased Control of the Society.

ALBANY, N. Y. June 27.—The executive committee of the organization of Equitable policy-holders of New York and Brooklyn met here today, but decided to await further developments before addressing Gov. Higgins. Their intention was to meet the governor today and request him to submit the Equitable matter to the extraordinary session of the legislature. The committee decided, however, in case the extra session adjourned in a few days, to ask the governor to call another session for the express purpose of considering insurance matters.

The committee indorsed a resolution drawn by Assemblyman Voelker, which he failed to have the assembly adopt last Wednesday, but which has been approved by meetings of Equitable policy-holders in Brooklyn and other places. This resolution recites various changes in connection with the Equitable situation, deplores the fact that one man has lately purchased control of the society and declares that the matter should be investigated by the legislature.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Former President Cleveland arrived from Princeton today and went direct to the Buckingham hotel. There he went into conference with Justice Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, his fellow trustees. Chairman Morton announced today that John Jacob Astor of this city and J. B. Forgan, president of the First National bank of Chicago, had tendered their resignations as directors of the Equitable.

It will be learned today that Paul Morton had sent a formal communication to Attorney General Mayer asking for a conference on the subject of a joint movement by the Equitable society and the state government in the matter of instituting legal proceedings against the director and officers who made illegal profits out of their connection with the society.

ORGANIZING BOOM FOR HUMP PLAN

Bigelow Invites the Property Owners to Attend a Hearing on Friday.

ANOTHER SLAP AT SOUTH SIDE

Director Bigelow is planning a boom for the hump removal at the meeting of the finance committee of councils, which the director said yesterday would be held on Friday afternoon, to hear property owners of the hump district. Director Bigelow proposes to invite all the property owners who are known to be in favor of the hump removal, and they will be asked to state their views. H. C. Frick is to be invited, but the director is not very confident of Mr. Frick attending.

It is said the administration program is to organize sentiment in favor of the improvement, among the property owners directly interested, and thus justify the approval of the 18-foot cut which is to be recommended to councils and a new date set for an election. Not only will the property owners be asked to waive all claims of damages, but they will be expected, so it is said, to contribute liberally to a campaign fund to insure the success of of the $2,000,000 bond issue at the polls.

Director Bigelow paid the South Side another doubtful compliment yesterday. "The South Side has been getting its share of everything," said he. "It got $2,000,000 worth of bridges and the city at large paid for them. There was not a street on the South Side paved with block stones when it came into the city, and the city paid for every street on the South Side that is now paved with stone. The city paved Brownsville avenue and Carson street. The South Side parks cost the city more in cash than Schenley and Highland parks together, and yet the South Side, as I said in common council last night, does not want to pay for anything.

Mayor Hays said yesterday he believed Mr. Frick might finally consent to an 18-foot cut and agree to sign a waiver. "I have not heard any person who is in favor of a 12-foot cut, as proposed by Mr. Frick," said the mayor. "It should be an 18-foot cut or nothing."

Mayor Hays has made a big shift in his views on the hump cut. Last year, when the proposition was being discussed, the mayor claimed the damages would be so heavy that the hump removal would cost the city $5,000,000 or $6,000,000. He now declares in favor of going ahead with the scheme, regardless of whether Mr. Frick signs a waiver of damages or not, and says he believes Mr. Frick would not be able to secure any damages from the city.

Notwithstanding the evident purpose of the administration to go ahead with the plan for an 18-foot cut, providing the other property owners indorse the plan, it is the general opinion of councilmen and others posted on the situation, even among the most ardent advocates of the hump removal, that it is useless to submit the question to a vote of the people unless Mr. Frick signs a waiver of damages.

"It is up to Mr. Frick," is the way the situation is sized up. It is believed that unless Mr. Frick finally signs a waiver, the majority of the property owners will also refuse to sign. Director Bigelow will have a difficult time to induce them to join in the movement independently of Mr. Frick.

JOHN R. MURPHY TO BE IN THE MAYORALTY CONTEST

Before Going Away Says He Will Be a Candidate in the Fall.

Former Recorder John R. Murphy of Allegheny returned last night to his residence in Mt. Clemens. He has been in Allegheny since last Sunday. The action of the supreme court in declaring the Cook bill unconstitutional brought Murphy back to the city hurriedly and he was busy during his entire stay.

"Are you going to be a candidate?" was asked of Murphy.

"I am no summer candidate."

"But will you be a candidate for mayor of Allegheny in the fall?"

"Well, yes, but I'm no candidate during the hot months," replied Murphy, with a smile. He would say nothing more than this, but it was told in Allegheny last night that yesterday Murphy had announced openly to his friends his candidacy for mayor.

Some significance is attached to Murphy's visit to city hall yesterday. He was in Director Scandrett's office for some time with Mayor Wyman, Director Scandrett and Select Councilman Morris Einstein.

EXPECT 20,000 GUESTS.

Reunion of Western Pennsylvania Hibernians to Be a Big Event.

Twenty thousand people are expected at the first reunion of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Western Pennsylvania at Calhoun park this afternoon. The national president of the order, James E. Dolan of Syracuse, N. Y., and prominent officials of the order in Pennsylvania arrived last night, while delegations came from Altoona, Johnstown, Erie, Philadelphia and Scranton.

Advices have been received that there will be delegations from Youngstown and other Eastern Ohio cities and from West Virginia. It is really a state reunion under the auspices of the Western Pennsylvania societies.

TO VOTE FOR DIRECTORS.

Election of South Side Hospital's New Board to Be Held on Monday.

The election of a new board of directors of the South Side hospital will take place next Monday at 2 p. m. The election will be held under the amended by-laws, and only those who have paid for a life membership or have contributed $100, may vote. The South Side Medical society has not the privilege it formerly had of electing a proportion of the directors.

The hospital management is about to build a nurses' dormitory and is hopeful that many $100 contributions will hasten to add themselves to those who have a right to vote for directors.

ETNA LAD HAS A REMARKABLE ESCAPE FROM INSTANT DEATH

Willie Gift, aged 13, son of William Gift, of 121 Butler street, Etna, had an almost miraculous escape from death yesterday evening when he was shot in the breast by Frank Romitz, with whom he was at play. The shot was fired from a 22-caliber Flobert rifle and struck right over the heart. The bullet struck a rib and turning in its course passed out of the boy's body within an inch of where it entered. The Romitz boy was terror-stricken over the accident. Fearing he would be punished he boarded a car for the city. Gift walked several squares toward his home when he fell fainting from loss of blood and fright.

Crawford of Beaver Falls; superintendent of missionary department, Miss Fanny M. McCrae of Rochester.

PRINCIPALS IN THE LATEST PANAMA CANAL DISPUTE

John F. Wallace. William H. Taft. Theodore Shonts.

WALLACE'S RESIGNATION ANGERS THE PRESIDENT

Chief Engineer's Demands for More Power in the Canal Zone Are Held to Have Been Unreasonable and Unfair.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Upon their meeting at Harvard tomorrow, President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft are expected to formulate and issue an official announcement of the resignation of John F. Wallace, chief engineer and member of the Panama canal commission, made public today. What Washington is most anxious to find out, is whether this official announcement will express the resentment the administration undoubtedly feels toward Mr. Wallace, whose retirement ends a warm row.

When Secretary Taft left Washington last week for New York to confer with Mr. Wallace, who had just arrived from Panama, he had a suspicion the chief engineer might offer his resignation if certain additional powers of administration were not given him. Mr. Taft had talked to the president about this, and had been given authority to act as he saw fit.

An official in close touch with the officers of the commission says the whole trouble was brought about by Mr. Wallace's desire to be the "whole thing" in the work of canal construction. When Mr. Wallace and Secretary Taft met in New York Mr. Wallace is understood to have requested an extension of powers which would have been in reality the establishment of a "one-man commission," with Mr. Wallace as the one man.

With a $60,000 post awaiting his acceptance, Mr. Wallace is said to have felt he was in position to seek not only greater powers in the canal work, but also more pay than he gets as chief engineer. It was this demand, it is believed, which aroused Secretary Taft to anger and to declare he could receive Mr. Wallace's resignation none too quickly, and that he was empowered by the president to say so.

"The present moment is critical in the canal program. Yellow fever is raging on the isthmus. President Roosevelt has called the international consulting board of engineers to meet in Washington September 1. It will wield great influence in determining whether the waterway shall be a sea-level or a lock canal. For Mr. Wallace to resign at this vital juncture, unless his demands were granted, was deemed an unreasonable exaction.

On every hand are now heard suggestions that the best way out of the difficulty is to place the construction of the canal under the engineer corps of the army.

ROBS PRIESTS' COFFINS AND MELTS HANDLES

Christopher Bauen Confesses to Looting the Burial Vault of St. Mary's Church.

Christopher Bauen, who was arrested Monday night while trying to sell some silver, yesterday confessed to Detective Superintendent McQuaide of robbing the burial vault of the St. Mary's church on Nunnery hill, Allegheny. The silver found on the prisoner was the metal taken from the coffins of the priests interred there.

The robbery was committee on Monday, June 19. Bauen went to the old church, and lifting the trap door leading to the vaults, descended among the dead. He pried the handles and plates from the coffins and also searched among the remains for jewels supposed to have been buried with the dead. The next day he returned to the vault and tied up his plunder, and last Wednesday he went back with a sack and carried it to his boarding house at No. 228 Henderson avenue, Allegheny.

Bauen secured a skillet from Mrs. Edward Spangler, with whom he lived, and melted the handles and plates. On Monday he sold the plate to a jeweler in Water street for $56. He received $19 on account and was to receive the balance when the jeweler analyzed the metal. Bauen was of the opinion he had not received full value for the plunder and he returned the $19 and took the silver away. He was arrested by Detective Rice while trying to dispose of it a second time.

Bauen told McQuaide how he examined the remains of the dead priests, and said he did so without any fear or morbid sentiment. Bauen was sent to the workhouse for 20 days last February by the Allegheny detectives for stealing a trunk. This morning he will be turned over to the Allegheny officials. He is 25 years old and was born in Berne, Switzerland. He came to this country 18 months ago and secured work on a farm in Butler county. Later he came to this city. Bauen says he was without funds and heard valuable jewels were interred with the dead priests.

LIMITED IS WRECKED IN THE LIMA YARDS

Fast Train on Pennsylvania Crashes Into Freight—Passengers Escape, Yardmaster Is Hurt.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

LIMA, O., June 27.—While running at a speed of not over 25 miles an hour, entering the company's yards in this city tonight, eastbound Pennsylvania Limited No. 2 crashed into a switching engine and a half dozen cars loaded with timbers. The passenger did not leave the track and was immediately under control. Other than a severe shaking-up no passenger was hurt. Yardmaster Kentrick of the local Pennsylvania yard, was thrown under the wheels of the freight train and his right leg cut off.

The Limited was reported late and the freight crew was using the passenger tracks for switching. The passenger train made up more time between stations than was expected and arrived in the yards some minutes before the freight crew had anticipated.

The tracks are badly blocked and the Limited will not be able to proceed east for several hours. The train in collision is not the Pennsylvania Special running between New York and Chicago in 18 hours.

Nonongenarian's Death from a Fall.

FREEDOM, PA., June 27.—(Special.)—Mrs. Minerva Reno Clarke the oldest resident of Freedom, is dead here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Bentel, aged 93 years. Death was due to injuries sustained by a fall a month ago. She was the daughter of Zachariah and Martha McMichaels Reno, pioneer residents of Allegheny city, where she was born. She lived with her daughter, Mrs. Bentel, who alone survived her, for 48 years. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Freedom.

Main Industry of Village Destroyed.

CORRY, PA., June 27.—(Special.)—The large chair factory at Elgin, Pa., four miles from this city, was entirely destroyed by fire tonight. The blaze was discovered about 11 o'clock in the engine room and before an alarm could be given the plant was a roaring furnace. The building, which was a three-story wooden structure, burned like tinder. The loss is estimated at $35,000. The plant was recently built and was the main industry of the village.

HORNE'S CONTRACT IS CANCELLED

Pittsburgh's Federal Building Not to Be Redecorated Until a Treasury Agent Investigates.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The federal building at Pittsburgh is not to be redecorated and painted until an agent of the treasury department has had an opportunity to investigate the matter, and prepare the proper sketches.

Some time ago the treasury department called for proposals for this purpose, and bids ranging from $5,000 to $15,000 were received, the lowest coming from the Joseph Horne Company. Accordingly, the contract was awarded to that firm.

Upon investigation, however, it developed that the specifications called for the removal of the pressed decorations in the court rooms and judges' chambers of the building, which was objected to by the judges themselves.

Acting under their protest, the secretary of the treasury has canceled the contract and has sent an agent of his department to Pittsburgh to go over the ground and secure the necessary information which will result in the painting and redecorating of the Pittsburgh federal building so that it will not be objectionable to those who are compelled to occupy it.

PITTSBURGH ELKS GIVE FINE SHOW AT GAYETY

Big Audience Is Delighted by the Singers and Comedians in Minstrel Performance.

The bones were just as spirited, the tambos just as musical and the voices of the Pittsburgh Elks just as mellow as ever in the minstrel show which was held last night in the Gayety theater, marking the 26th annual benefit of lodge No. 11. It deserved the big audience which listened to the music and the merrymaking, and when Exalted Ruler George W. Allen figured up the receipts in the box office, he was assured that the local B. P. O.'s had succeeded in adding a good-sized fund to their charity account.

The show lacked none of its essential features. There was a fine military drill by Company F, Fourteenth regiment, a fancy drill by No. 11's new corps, besides all kinds of rollicking stunts by Con. Yeager, Al King, William H. Hahn, Julius Cohn, J. P. Griffith, Tim McCarthy, Frank McCarthy and A. H. Bahrenberg. James P. Dunlevy was director and manager and James L. Daugherty was musical director. A song by Master Jerry Dunlevy was one of the hits of the evening.

R. A. FRANKS HERE.

Andrew Carnegie's Secretary Is Pleased With Progress on Institute Addition and Technical School.

R. A. Franks, secretary to Andrew Carnegie in charge of the business connected with Mr. Carnegie's philanthropies, was in Pittsburgh yesterday.

Mr. Franks called on President W. N. Frew of the Carnegie Institute board, was escorted by the latter through the addition of the institute and the "Tech" schools. He was much impressed with the amount of work which has already been done. Mr. Franks will sail next week for Europe and will call on Mr. Carnegie while he is there.

MARRIAGE OF MISS PHIPPS.

Fashionable London Looking Forward to the Event With Considerable Interest.

LONDON, June 27.—All fashionable London is looking forward to the wedding tomorrow at St. George's, Hanover Square, of Capt. Frederick Guest and Miss Amy Phipps of Pittsburgh. Three American girls, Miss Jean Reid and the Misses Beatrice and Gladys Miller are to be the bridesmaids.

Capt. Guest is a son of Lord Wimborne and a first cousin of the dukes of Marlborough and Roxburghe.

Greater Greensburg a Fact.

GREENSBURG, PA., June 27.—(Special.)—By a vote of 5 to 1 the electors of Greensburg, Ludwick, East Greensburg and Southeast Greensburg today decided for consolidation. The proposition to merge the four boroughs carried overwhelmingly. The vote in the boroughs was: For, 1,682; against, 219. With the granting of letters patent by Gov. Pennypacker a new municipality with a population of more than 20,000 will be affected.

Action Against Rebate Roads.

KANSAS CITY, MO., June 27.—Milton D. Purdy, assistant attorney-general, arrived here today, from Washington, to institute proceedings before United States District Judge Phillips against the 14 railroad companies enjoined from giving rebates. Mr. Purdy stated that the informations against the roads had not been prepared by him, and that they would not be filed for several days.

SOME WAR TALK IS INDULGED IN

Situation in Norway and Sweden Borders on the Critical. King Oscar's Position.

NO CHOICE FOR THRONE

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

STOCKHOLM, June 27.—King Oscar has directed the court marshal to issue the following statement regarding the rumor that his majesty would be willing to place a prince of the house of Bernadotte on the throne of Norway. "The king does not approve the idea and will not consent thereto. The only condition under which his majesty could reconsider this decision would be the unexpected expression of the wish of the riksdag that a prince of the house of Bernadotte should ascend the Norwegian throne."

Both houses of the riksdag today elected extraordinary committees to which were referred the government bill looking to a settlement with Norway. The debates on the remission of the bill brought out fiery speeches in which the action of the Norwegian storthing was condemned and the Swedish cabinet severely criticised.

Pastor Waldenstrom, speaking in the house, said he was willing to remit the bill in order to prevent hasty repressions in debate, but the union with Norway amounted to nothing. He said that in Norwegian schools in recent years the children had been taught to hate Sweden, and continued:

"I am against war, but it may have to come as a last resort. Norway's action amounts to revolution and should be treated accordingly, as a deadly insult to Sweden. The government's proposition opens up the probability of war. Its weakness lies in the fact that Norway, having broken the union, is liable to break treaties."

Baron Kennedy, speaking in the senate, said: "If the king's message expresses his opinion, he has lost two crowns instead of one."

This remark was greeted with great cheering by the anti-government members.

PRINCIPAL JOHNSTON IS NOT RE-ELECTED

His Defeat Will Likely End Trouble in Allegheny Seventh Ward School Board.

The trouble that has been brewing in the Seventh ward, Allegheny, school board for a long time, had its finale last night in the defeat of Principal Edward P. Johnston for re-election. C. H. Donnell of Turtle Creek and David A. Brown of Springdale were elected principals of the two schools. There were 15 applicants for the positions, but only the names of Johnston, Brown and Donnell were voted on. Donnell was nominated on the first ballot and Brown on the second. Prof. Johnston has been principal of the two schools for 14 years and drew a salary of $2,100. It was decided that $1,850 would be paid at the Spring Garden school and $1,600 at the Spring Hill school.

There has been trouble in the board for more than a year, and several months ago charges were brought against Johnston by a faction in the board. President David B. Oliver of the board of school controllers presided at several meetings that were held to have an investigation of the charges made. Secrecy was maintained and no report of the investigation was ever made public. It was presumed that Johnston was exonerated.

The latter made a statement last night in which he declared his defeat was brought about by contemptible methods and by the interference of persons outside the Seventh ward. He intimates that the motive back of the opposition to him will be shown.

The board nominated Miss Bertha Pilsinger to succeed Miss Rosa Walker, who resigned.

RESERVES HIS DECISION.

Attorney General Hears Argument in Fayette County Company Store Case.

HARRISBURG, June 27.—Attorney General Carson gave a hearing today on the petition of Alfred E. Jones of Connellsville for a writ of quo warranto to declare the company stores conducted by the H. C. Frick Coke Company in Fayette county and vicinity under the name of the Union Supply Company. Jones appeared for George D. Moore and Joseph Hantman, who conduct rival stores at Edinboro and who allege the employes of the company are compelled to deal with the Union Supply Company under pain of instant dismissal.

Affidavits of employes and former employes of the coke company to sustain the contention were presented. The coke company was represented by Willis F. McCook of Pittsburgh and Thomas Lynch of Greensburg. The attorney general reserved his decision.

REFUSES PRIZE BANNER.

Fourth Avenue Baptist Sunday Schools Gives Up Honor—$4,189 Raised by Children.

Through its superintendent, J. H. Stauff, the Sunday school of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church last night refused to accept a banner from the Pittsburgh Baptist association as the third prize for raising funds on Children's day, June 11. This was done in order that the honor might go to a smaller church. The Millvale school was awarded the banner.

The first prize went to the Duquesne Heights school and the second prize to the McKees Rocks school. The total amount raised in the 82 schools of the Pittsburgh district on Children's day was $4,189.41, an increase over last year, with a few schools yet to hear from.

HOMEWOOD SCHOOLS SEND OUT A BRILLIANT CLASS

An audience which completely filled the auditorium and overflowed into the street attended the seventh annual commencement of the Homewood sub-district public schools last night in the Homewood Avenue Presbyterian church. The salutatory was delivered by Olive Irene Page and a short address was made by Alexander J. Wurts of the Carnegie Technical schools faculty. A pleasant feature of the exercises was the choral work of the graduating class. The class, composed of 56 members, is one of the largest ever sent out from the school.

Teresa Vina Has John Borovczki Jailed, Charged With Breach of Promise.

John Borovczki is in jail, charged by Teresa Vina with having broken his promise to marry her. Not often, it is asserted, do Slavish girls appeal to the courts in case of being jilted.

The girl says she was engaged to be married to Borovczki, but that she learned he had taken out a license to marry another girl and was to be married today. Borovczki was arrested on a capias.

NILES ROASTS LEGISLATURE

State Bar Association Hears Attack on Solons for Not Reapportioning State.

LOCAL LEGAL CASE REVIEWED

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM
Jerome J. Nordman, Staff Correspondent.

BEDFORD, PA., June 27.—At the opening session of the 11th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bar association, which convened here this afternoon, Henry C. Niles of York, in his president's address, devoted a full hour in denouncing the recent session of the state legislature before an audience that included at least 10 members of the senate and house of representatives, several of whom were accompanied by their wives and daughters. His arraignment was severe and dwelt mostly upon the fact that the legislature had neglected to provide for a new apportionment of the state, with a view to changing the present measure of representation. At the conclusion of the address, which was the first thing offered to the convention, a great majority of the delegates gathered on the veranda on the outside of the convention hall and in groups discussed the address. Many delegates expressed themselves as not being in full accord with the address and several announced that it was the presentation of the views of the president as an individual, and not of the association as a body.

A portion of tomorrow's program will be devoted to criticisms and it is rumored that the president's address will receive a due share of the allotted time.

Interesting Case Reviewed.

Aside from his attack on the legislature President Niles devoted considerable time to an interesting discussion of state legal history during the year, which included an interesting review of the case of Mrs. Sullivan against the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, and which led to a supreme court ruling ordering the close of the steel mills unless ore dust was abated. The convention, which will remain in session until Thursday night, is being largely attended. Many ladies were present and appeared interested in the proceedings today. Among prominent Allegheny county members of the bar who are present are: Judges Shafer, Macfarlane, Miller, McClung and Frazer, and Attorneys R. B. Scandrett, Jr., F. C. McGirr, Charles P. Orr, Edwin H. Smith, J. M. Swearingen, J. M. Shields, E. B. Scull, William Scott, Thomas S. Brown, J. H. Harrison and Charles M. Thorp.

The committee on law reform, Alexander Simpson, Jr., chairman, refused to favorably recommend a proposed act conferring exclusive jurisdiction upon the orphans courts in the matter of lunatics and habitual drunkards.

Impracticable Act.

A proposed act relating to the plotting and indexing of lands and the registry of deeds in all counties, was reported impracticable in the rural districts, and too expensive. The committee favorably recommended a proposed act relating to the fees and transportation of and to the rights of witnesses subpoenaed to appear and testify in any civil action or proceeding, and providing that such charges shall be part of the costs thereof. The act provides $2 a day for witnesses attending cases in their own community and transportation, and $2 a day and $2 a night when detained from home.

The committee on legal biography reported in detail the achievements of the association, told of the establishment and gathering of a historical collection and enumerated the deaths in the state legal fraternity during the year, carrying obituaries. The special committee on the registration of land titles reported that opposition to the law was made on the ground that it was not needed and as the proposed act had been defeated by the legislature, the committee had done nothing in the matter. The reports of the treasurer and secretary were routine, while reports of special committees revealed no new developments of note.

Prospective Officers.

The nominating committee authorized to present candidates for election to office on Thursday night was named just before adjournment this afternoon. Present indications are that J. B. Colahan of Philadelphia will be the single nominee for president, and that William P. Lloyd of Mechanicsburg and William H. Staake of Philadelphia will be renominated as treasurer and secretary, respectively.

The evening session was devoted to a hearing of the annual address on the constitutional powers and discretion of the president, which was delivered by Charles A. Gardiner, chief counsel of the New York subway.

After speaking at length on the jurisdiction of powers and discretion of the president Mr. Gardiner challenged the assertion that "the government consists of a tripartite organization which alone administers all our sovereignties." He also claimed that the jurisdiction of the government of the president is "our domestic territory and the whole world beyond, and within those far-reaching boundaries he rules, not as the chief executive, but as chief magistrate, and his government is not legislative, but solely magisterial or presidential. Such is the duplex government of the United States, and everywhere within its world-wide jurisdiction the president can exercise his constitutional powers and discretion."

Summing up his views on conditions that obtain today the speaker concluded as follows: "I conceive that we have entered upon a new era of political development. This is the age of executive expansion. The supremacy of congress is giving way before the irresistible domination of the president. In 1790 congress numbered 91 members, the supreme court 6, the executive force 2,000. Had all kept pace with our population, congress would now number 1,865, the supreme court 123, and the executive force 41,000. Had all increased in proportion to our wealth, congress would now number 13,741, the supreme court 906, and the executive force 295,000. Instead congress now numbers 476, the supreme court 9, and the executive force 240,000."

"Thus while other departments have stood comparatively rigid and inelastic, the president has grown with the country's growth, expanded with every phase of its development, and more automatically than any other department has assumed those Protean forms required for the constantly increasing and varying demands of the republic."

The principal business of tomorrow morning's session will be the presentation of proposed legislation, while addresses will take up the remainder of the day.

Gov. and Mrs. Pennypacker arrived at 8 o'clock this evening. The governor will speak at the banquet Thursday night.

LAST GRAFT CASES.

Director Scandrett, Supt. Campbell and Samuel C. Gilkison Will Be Tried Next Week.

Next week will be a busy one for District Attorney Stewart and Attorneys John Marron and John D. Haymaker, who have been engaged in subduing the graft habit in Allegheny for several months past. Mr. Marron said yesterday that he hoped to clean up the graft cases next week. This means that it is the intention of the prosecuting attorneys to try all cases still pending, with the exception of the cases against the women who have been indicted for breaches of the statutes in Allegheny. These will be disposed of, perhaps, at the fall term of court.

The retrial of Police Superintendent Campbell is set for next week. Director Thomas B. Scandrett of the public safety department will be tried for extortion. Samuel C. Gilkinson will be put on trial for jury fixing. This, Mr. Marron says, will keep them busy during the entire week.

BIG AUTO MEET BEGINS TODAY

First Race in National Championship Motor Carnival Will Be Called at 2 P. M.

ALL THE SPEED DEMONS READY

On the eve of the great automobile races which are to begin this afternoon at the Brunots island race track and conclude tomorrow all is bustling activity. Not anywhere in the world this year has there been such important races as is programed for the national championship meet here.

Many of the demons of speed had arrived yesterday and were at once taken down to the track for tuning up. George F. Fisher, secretary of the Matinee club, gave orders that the track be cleared of horses, which were having their workouts, at 4:30.

When the time arrived Earl Kiser was seen emerging from the big white tent in the infield and the Winton Bullet No. 2 was stripped for an eight-mile spin. The crowd gathered around it and watched every move of the daring driver. There is a mysterious hunch pervading the Winton camp, and auto racing men were trying to fathom it.

Kiser started at the drawgate and slowly gaining speed was away flying at the judges' stand. In a twinkling he was out on the back stretch and scorching down the straight. At the end of the third mile, which he went in 56 seconds, his mechanic signaled him and he slowed up a trifle, but he finished the eight miles with each one under a minute. What Kiser has up his sleeve is the question, for it was the belief of those who watched his spin that the Bullet was not fully extended.

It is said that the Bullet has never before had all its eight engines working when in action. First one would miss and then the other. But with the carburretor now in use, all the engines are giving full values, and if this be so, this is the greatest speed producer in the world. A $3,000 challenge is on the carpet, open to the world.

Louis Chevrolet with his 90-horse power F. I. A. T. will reach here this morning, as will also Barney Oldfield and his Green Dragon. The machines come by express from the Empire City track, where they had one of the greatest and grandest contests of the year. It was for $2,000 a side and Chevrolet won two out of three heats.

So intense is the rivalry between these great drivers that each has drawn about him a partisan following throughout the country. A combative spirit between them has been engendered that is as bitter as ever exhibited in a gladiatorial arena.

W. W. Darley, chairman of the race committee, arranged yesterday for a platoon of police to be at the track. This may have the effect of keeping the drivers in bounds. If there is any careless killing they will be after the guilty ones and they will have to answer for it.

The first race will be called at 2 p. m. and there will be nine events. Those who wish to avoid the crush of the monster crowds will do well to go early. Never before has the community been stirred up over contests like it is by the coming automobile races. Like Derby day in England they will be there from all conditions of life. Many will go in the morning, in fact, they will be going down most of the day, and take their lunches at the island.

The entries for the events today are as follows:

Event No. 1 first day and No. 11 second day—Reo, 16 horse power, King and Larimer, S. A. Stewart, S. A. Stewart, driver. Pierce, 16 horse power, A. L. Banker; D. P. Collins, driver. GRADUATES HOLD PICNIC.

Liberty School Pupils Have Annual Outing in Kennywood Park.

Members of the graduating class of the Liberty sub-district school, Twentieth ward, held their annual outing at Kennywood park yesterday. The class went to the park in special cars from the school in Ellsworth avenue. The class will hold its exercises in the Friendship school tomorrow evening, when prizes provided by the school board and J. A. Hardy will be distributed to those who made the highest marks. There are 112 members in the class.

The annual jubilee of the four schools in the ward will be held in the Liberty school yard Friday night. The Home for Homeless Children will have charge of the refreshment stands.

"The Mikado" at the Nixon.

"The Mikado" at the Nixon is another Japanese victory. The cast of characters is an example of what summer opera ought to be, and the entire production adds another large leaf to the laurels of the Carleton opera company. The piece for next week is Balfe's melodious work, "The Bohemian Girl," and the same perfection in the distribution of singers and stage production is promised, which, judging from the operas already given, means a fulfillment in absolute fact. The sale of seats for next week will open tomorrow morning.

Money for Pittsburgh's Fourth.

The following contributions to the Pittsburgh Fourth of July fund were received by Mayor Hays yesterday: Pittsburgh Railways Company, $1,000; Pittsburgh Meter Company, $100; Dunlevy Bros., $10, and Aronson Realty Company, $10. The total fund is $3,360.

Inauguration of Chautauqua Lake Sleeping Car Service Via Pennsylvania Railroad.

Commencing Saturday, July 1, a Pullman sleeping car will run daily between Pittsburgh and Mayville, N. Y. (Chautauqua Lake), leaving Pittsburgh on train No. 3 at 11 p. m. Returning sleeping car will leave Mayville daily on train No. 4 at 1 p. m., arriving at Pittsburgh at 7:30 a. m.

GRADUATES ADVISED OF MONEY'S TAINT

Students of Curry College Are Told to Side With Conscience.

"I'd rather die without a cent to procure my burial under the clods than to be troubled by the conscience of having obtained tainted money. You will strive for success and my earnest wish is that you will attain it, but let conscience guide every act of yours throughout your lives."

This was the advice given by the Rev. A. W. Caldwell to the graduates of Curry college at the commencement exercises at the Alvin theater last night. He preached them a sermon on right living and scored the business man who neglects his conscience in a frenzied struggle for riches.

"Many of you will embark on business careers," continued Mr. Caldwell, "and

James Frederick Wilson,
Graduate and first honor student from the normal department of Curry college.

in your work you will find opportunities to exercise deceit. You will be subject to great temptation and will be called upon to decide between right and wrong. Keep your hands off tainted money—money which has been secured through men's blood. Side with your conscience and wake up to face the morrow's sun with clean hands and a clean heart."

Ninety-six graduates heard the impassioned words of the speaker. The commencement exercises were unique because all wore the somber cap and gown of a university, although the young people who had just completed courses in stenography and bookkeeping wore their strange robes with becoming grace. James Frederick Wilson, the first honor man and a graduate in the normal department, delivered the valedictory and talked of the triumphs of electricity as one of the indices to the modern man's opportunities for great achievements. He predicted a trans-continental trolley line and expounded upon the marvel of the telegraph and the cable which enables Pittsburgh newspapers to print the news of events in Manchuria the same day they occur. Sylvester Young delivered the salutatory.

These graduates in the conservatory were awarded gold medals: Miss Mae F. Reynolds, Miss Florence Taylor and Miss Anna G. Saddler.

Yaquis Murder Ranchers.

TUCSON, ARIZ., June 27.—At least 12 ranchers and several women and children have met death at the hands of a band of Yaqui Indians along the San Miguel river in the Ures district of Sonora. A party composed largely of American mining men, headed by Joseph Dewitt, has gone out from Pozo station to rescue other ranchers.

Stone Old Man to Death.

STERLING, ILL., June 27.—Jesse Koser, 18 years old, has confessed that following a quarrel he stoned to death Jacob Weaver, aged 65, at Savannah last Saturday night. Koser and his brother Frank, aged 16, and their father, Edward Koser, have been held to the grand jury as accessories.

Gen. Wood Arrives Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood and wife arrived here today on the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria from the orient, on a flying trip to the east. Maj.-Gen. Wood will be the guest of President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

BABY GIRL'S AWFUL HUMOR

Would Scab Over, Break Open and Be Raw—Intense Suffering for Two Years—Doctors and Medicines Failed to Help Her.

CURED BY CUTICURA
AT COST OF 75 CENTS

Writing under date of August 15, 1904, Mrs. L. C. Walker of 5 Tremont St., Woodfords, Me., says: "My sister had a terrible humor on her shoulder when she was eighteen months old, causing intense suffering for two years. We had several doctors, and tried everything, but in spite of all we did it kept spreading. One day it would scab over and then crack open and a watery matter ooze from it and the scabs would all fall off. It would be raw for a time, then scab over again. Some one recommended Cuticura, and we immediately procured a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a cake of Cuticura Soap. She was much better after the first bath with warm water and soap, and an application of the Ointment. Before it was half gone we saw a marked change for the better, and she was entirely cured, without a scar being left, by the one box of Ointment and one cake of Soap. Her skin is now entirely clear, and she has not had a sign of trouble since."

Today's Testimonials to Our Underprice System.

Well may these latter days of June be called the piping times of petty prices, for in our more than half century of storekeeping it cannot be said that merchandise was ever offered for such ridiculous figures as those which have been quoted for the things in today's series of special sales.

We devoted our columns yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon to telling about these sales today, and we do not take up the matter again this morning. In these times of largely circulated newspapers it is a fair assumption that you are acquainted with every fact concerning what is going on in this store today. However, there is news of one sale that we feel like repeating, and that is

The Reduced Prices for Men's Summer Clothes.

Today we are going to sell men's Summer Suits, Summer Coats and Summer Trousers for reduced prices that represent a very considerable saving—in some cases as much as $7.00 on a suit. Men who look to these occasions for laying in a supply of clothes will govern themselves accordingly. Here are the figures—

Men's fancy suits, about 175 of them, all sizes in the lot, many different materials, at $11.00 from $15.00, at $12.50 from $18.00, at $14.00 from $20.00, at $16.00 from $22.50, at $17.50 from $25.00.

Small lot of men's Outing Suits, two-piece affairs, wool crash, at $11.00 from $15.00, at $12.50 from $18.00.

Men's $16.50 Raincoats for $11.00, and we feel like stating that the raincoat is the best companion a man can have beside him any day in the year. To own a raincoat is to own a coat that will serve you in the Fall as an overcoat.

Men's blue and black cheviot trousers, and a few striped worsted dress trousers, these last mostly small waists, at $3.50 a pair from $5.00 and $6.00.

AN ORDINANCE—Regulating the issue of permits to open asphalt streets in the city of Allegheny, and providing for the repaving of the same by said city after same are opened, at the cost of the person, persons or corporations opening the same and providing for the disposition of the money received by the city for making such repairs.

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage and approval of this ordinance no permit shall be issued by any department of the city government to any person, persons or corporation to open any street paved with asphalt in the city of Allegheny, unless such person, persons or corporation shall first enter into a stipulation or agreement with said city of Allegheny that, after the work done by said person, persons or corporation, said city of Allegheny may repair said street and charge the cost thereof to the person, persons or corporation securing the permit to open, and that such person, persons or corporation securing such permit shall notify the official granting such permit of the completion of his, their or its work, said stipulation or agreement to contain a clause in which the person, persons or corporation securing such permit shall pay to said city of Allegheny the cost of the necessary repairs immediately upon the completion thereof.

Sec. 3—Openings in streets paved with asphalt shall be repaired by the city at the cost and charge of the person, persons or corporation making such openings; and the cost of making such repairs shall be as follows: Resurfacing shall be charged at the rate of $1.40 per square yard. Repaving shall be charged at the rate of $1.90 per square yard.

Sec. 3—The money received by said city of Allegheny for making such repairs shall be by the treasurer of said city placed quarterly during each year in and to the credit of Item No. 4, appropriation No. 11, bureau of highways and sewers, department of public works.

Sec. 4—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law in councils this 15th day of June, A. D. 1905.

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing the payment of $784.18 to James W. Dickson, sheriff of Allegheny county, for certain properties purchased by the city of Allegheny, and $18.00 to Wm. B. Kirker, prothonotary, for recording the sheriff's deeds for the same.

Whereas, At the instance of the city of Allegheny writs of levari facias were issued against the property of Peter Kuehn at M. L. D. No. 2, January term, 1899 of A. W. Tezloff at M. L. D. 4, May, 1899; of A. Leggate at 6 August, 1899; of R. S. Smith at 14 August, 1899; of M. B. Shirk's heirs at 15 August, 1899; of Nannie Hammer at 16 August, 1899; of Daniel Neely at 55 November, 1900; of Mrs. Sarah Carey at 3 February, 1901, and of Mrs. F. A. Scott at 49 August, 1901, and the said properties sold by the sheriff at the sales in April and May, 1905; and

Whereas, No bidders for said property appeared at said sales, and it became necessary for the said properties to be bid in for the city of Allegheny for sufficient to pay the costs and county taxes, and said properties were bid in for the city as follows: Peter Kuehn, $62.77; W. Tezloff, $100.09; A. Leggate, $117.44; R. S. Smith, $57.52; M. B. Shirk's heirs, $38.64; Nannie Hammer, $97.54; Daniel Neely, $77.58; Mrs. Sarah Carey, $72.04, and Mrs. F. A. Scott, $73.26. Total, $797.18. Therefore,

Sec. 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the controller be and he is hereby authorized to issue a certificate on the mayor for a warrant in the sum of $784.18 in favor of James W. Dickson, sheriff, being $797.18 purchase price and $27.00 for preparing deeds to the city of Allegheny, and for a warrant in the sum of $18.00 in favor of Wm. B. Kirker, prothonotary, for recording said deeds. Said warrants to be paid out of appropriation No. 41, contingent fund.

Sec. 2—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

AN ORDINANCE—Requiring the curbing and laying of flagstone sidewalks on the south side of Watson boulevard, from Perrysville avenue to Tioga street, providing for notice to the abutting property owners to do said work, and on their failure to comply therewith, authorizing and ordering the advertisement for proposals and awarding of a contract for doing said work, and providing for the collection of the cost and expense thereof.

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the curbing and laying of a flagstone sidewalk on the south side of Watson boulevard, from Perrysville avenue to Tioga street, is hereby authorized and ordered, and the owners of the properties abutting thereon are hereby required to do said curbing and lay said sidewalk in front of their several properties within thirty days after notice to them to do so. Said flagstone sidewalk to be of a uniform width of five feet, and the sidewalk to be laid and the curb to be set upon such lines as shall be designated by the city engineer, and under the direction and to the satisfaction of the director of the department of public works.

Sec. 2—It shall be the duty of the department of public works to serve a written notice upon the owners of property abutting on the south side of said Watson boulevard to do said work, and if owners are residents of the city of Allegheny, said notice may either be served personally or by leaving a copy thereof at their place of residence with an adult member of their family. If the owners are not residents of the city of Allegheny, such notice may be served by posting three copies thereof upon the premises.

Sec. 3—Upon the expiration of thirty days after the service of said notices, the director of the department of public works is hereby instructed to prepare specifications for doing said work in front of all the properties, the owners of which failed to comply with said notice, and the mayor and the said director are authorized to advertise for proposals for doing said work in accordance with said specifications, and award the contract thereof according to the provisions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided.

The cost and expense thereof to be assessed upon the properties in front of or along which said work is done, and liens filed therefor, in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania pertaining thereto.

Sec. 4—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Wednesday, June 28, 1905.

A general scare was caused by the falling of a chimney in Yellow Row yesterday, because the long expected collapse of the structure was believed to have come. Better proof would hardly be needed of the necessity of a final decision on the fate of the old buildings. It will be too late to make creditable disposition of the matter after the "row" has fallen down, with or without fatalities.

Judge Charles F. McKenna, who is home from Porto Rico, declares the Yankee schoolmarm is doing wonders for that former Spanish possession. The English language and Yankee manners, says Judge McKenna, are bringing about a peaceful revolution in the island. The Pittsburgh jurist agrees with other observers that Porto Rico is a land of opportunity for the optimist who can communicate his enthusiasm to others.

Graeme Stewart, who died in Chicago yesterday, was the Republican candidate for mayor of that city at the last election. He was defeated by Mayor Dunne because the latter promised immediate municipal ownership of street railways, while Mr. Stewart favored acquisition of the lines after pending litigation should be decided. Mr. Stewart's death was shockingly sudden, but he lived long enough to see Chicago recognizing the wisdom and justice of his position during his unsuccessful campaign.

A meeting of the finance committee of councils has been called for Friday, when a public hearing will be given on hump reduction. Those interested are invited to appear and give their views to the committee, though Director Bigelow and his newspaper organs make it clear that no argument can convince them the cut should be less than 18 feet, or that any part of the cost should be paid by benefited property owners as such. The committee may be more open to conviction. We shall see.

Germany's reply to the lengthy communication of Premier Rouvier, which created so much uneasiness last week, has been delivered to France and there is marked relief of the tension. The reply is friendly, even cordial, in tone, but insists the matters affecting Morocco must be decided by a general conference of the powers without preliminary agreement. It is not apparent why this should relieve the situation, for it continues the original demand of Germany in full force to be left free to spring any proposition it pleases on the conference.

The speed capacity of automobiles will be tested on Brunots island today and tomorrow and the leading racing men in the country will be there. There are over 100 entries in all classes, but interest will center in the national championship races which continue through the season and on various tracks. In these there are five entries of riders familiar with the maneuvers of racing, who will attempt to gain records for the aggregate score. Interest in automobiling has increased in Pittsburgh since the first races held here last year, and the enthusiasts attending this week's contests will not be confined to those who ride the horseless machines.

John M. Pattison of Cincinnati and John C. Welty of Canton are the leading candidates before the Ohio Democratic convention for the gubernatorial nomination today. Pattison is an anti-saloon leaguer and his claims are based on the supposition that he can bring the temperance vote over to the regular Democratic strength. John C. Welty is a regular Democrat and is urged on the ground that a liberal candidate is needed to hold the regular Democratic vote, because the anti-saloon element will vote against Herrick anyway. To the disinterested observer it seems very unlikely that any candidate can hold two such dissimilar elements, and Herrick is sure to win.

Remarkable Performance.

As a concession to public opinion the Citizens party went through the form of holding a convention yesterday to nominate a county ticket. There was no primary election to select delegates or express popular preferences, but 500 or so of men were gathered in the Bijou theater to ratify a program with as much appearance of enthusiasm as they could muster. It must be conceded they got through with the job without breaking the slate.

A couple of weeks ago the Hon. William J. Brennen, regularly constituted as the Democratic party of Allegheny county, called to his assistance four able gentlemen to select a bunch of Democratic candidates. Mr. Brennen had carried his burden alone for two months, but at the critical moment felt it necessary to share the blame with others. The five of them selected three candidates; Henry Meyer for register, F. X. Barr for clerk of courts and J. A. Clark for county commissioner. Yesterday's convention chose the same gentlemen for the same offices unanimously. It was one of the marvelous achievements of the age, for the convention had no connection, unless by occult process, with the distinguished committee of five.

The remainder of the ticket was chosen as easily and by the same occult unanimity. Each of the 500 delegates knew by instinct who was the choice of his 499 associates for each particular office and not one forgot the name of the man to be voted for. It was a remarkable exhibition—the most remarkable ever given in the popular theater since old Library hall first opened its doors. The play was not as well attended as it should have been, considering the large company, the distinguished actors on the stage and the truly marvelous performance. Possibly prophetic of the lack of support for the ticket thus created.

Unfortunate Tangle.

The resignation of John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, is an unfortunate affair. According to the best information now attainable it was brought about by a railroad offer of twice the salary paid by the government and a refusal to give him all the power he demanded for prosecution of the work on the isthmus. The offer of employment indicates the value of the man; the refusal to enlarge his powers will be variously construed. Mr. Wallace's friends will likely support his demands as requisite to the highest efficiency in the work, while the president and Secretary Taft regard them as unwarranted.

At the moment the resignation is embarrassing to the administration. It will be awkward to face the consulting engineers, called to meet September 1, without a chief commissioner familiar with the situation. It may be difficult to decide for or against a sea level canal without benefit of the comprehensive knowledge of Mr. Wallace.

A tentative suggestion has been thrown out that it may be found advisable to turn the work over to the engineer corps of the army. If that is attempted great care needs to be exercised in the selection of the engineer in charge. Government work is not ordinarily done with the promptness and economy that obtain with private tasks. It partakes too much of the nature of routine to arouse enthusiasm. It was to avoid this that President Roosevelt decided upon having a chief engineer, selected for conspicuous energy and ability. He should now be slow to change to that which was even more available at the beginning.

College Boat Races.

Crews representing six colleges will race at Poughkeepsie today, while tomorrow Harvard and Yale will row in their annual contest on the Thames at New London. The events are the culmination of long training on the part of the contestants, but for the average student they mark the close of the year, forming a part of the festivities of commencement time. No matter what the indications the undergraduate hopes his own colors will win, and with a disregard for all rules of chance, backs his crew though it may be doomed to defeat. More spectacular, perhaps, than baseball and football games, the aquatic events give vent to the enthusiasm of the partisan, who cheers tailenders as well as victors.

Cornell is a favorite at Poughkeepsie. She won three of the last six races, but the fact that Syracuse forged ahead last year gives the supporters of that college encouragement. Predictions give the last place either to Pennsylvania or Georgetown, but if predictions were certainties races would not be rowed. At New London a Yale victory is usually expected because it has been that way in 14 of the 17 contests that have taken place at New London in the past 20 years. Harvard athletes are always plucky. In spite of the tremendous earnestness of the preparations and strenuousness of the contest, the spirit of college athletics is philosophical and all are cheerful in the hope that the best may win. These college contests are among the most interesting of sporting events because they are on the square, where skill and strength win.

Matrimony and Justice.

Two recent incidents of that always fruitful American institution, the magistrate's court, furnish food for reflection. A local magistrate held for trial a wife accused of habitually and cruelly beating her husband. The defendant was in court and exhibited numerous and sundry bruises and cuts as evidence of the inhuman and unwifely conduct of his spouse. A New York justice on the same day rendered a Solomonic judgment in a case in which the wife complained the husband neglected her and not only roughly used her at times, but failed in all those little delicate attentions which a wife is supposed to receive, such as a sufficient proportion of the weekly wage to procure the necessary food for herself and children. The magistrate decided the husband should take the wife to Coney Island at least once a week and show her a good time, and in addition should at least once a day kiss the partner of his joys. It is only by properly balancing the affairs of this life that we arrive at a correct and satisfactory basis for operation, whether in abstract science or in conduct. The incidents recorded above suggest a solution by this method of one of the most fruitful causes of human discord. May not the New York magistrate in his unique deliverance have suggested a preventive as well as a remedy for the suffering husbands who are beaten and cuffed by muscular and belligerent wives? When the angry wife shows a disposition to hit the shrinking husband over the head with the rolling pin, the thing for him to do, in order to avert the blow and the subsequent scandal of a magistrate's court, is to suggest the parks, or a trip down the river, or perhaps a jolly whirl on the shoot the chutes. When he sees the storm cloud gathering on the brow of his angry partner, or discovers her fondly fingering a baseball bat, the thing for him to do is to chase her adroitly into some corner and when she is not looking steal a gentle kiss. These things, if put into constant practice, will eventually suppress the widespread and cruel habit of husband beating. A day at a summer resort, or a kiss rightly placed as to time should prove the bulwark of the married man's safety.

Dealing in Futures.

In connection with the meeting of the Democratic state committee at Harrisburg today, it is boldly announced that unless the Wanamaker forces give guarantees of support for Mayor W. H. Berry of Chester, there will be no Democratic indorsement of Justice John Stewart by the Democratic convention. Possibly this deal has been made without authority from Col. James M. Guffey or his personal representative, James Knox Polk Hall of the Elk county tannery district. It is admitted they have not yet delivered their orders.

If it is authoritative it knocks into a cocked hat the Democratic pretense of rejoicing over the nomination and the appointment of the able Franklin county jurist. Or does the Democracy contend that Wanamaker support, or absence of support, for Treasury Candidate Berry makes, or mars, the ability of Judge Stewart? From the Republican point of view it makes no difference whether the Democracy indorses John Stewart or names another candidate. Stewart will be elected in either case. From the Wanamaker point of view it is not easily apparent that it can make any more difference, so far as this year's campaign is concerned. Judge Stewart is not a Wanamaker candidate. The Democracy, then, appears to be looking ahead. If the Wanamaker men do not line up for Berry there will be no Democratic line-up for Buck, or for Gordon next year. A good many people would like to hear Col. Guffey's opinion on lining up for Gordon under any circumstances.

The Santa Fe Case.

President Roosevelt has determined to proceed against the Santa Fe and all of the other roads charged with granting rebates, according to the investigation of the interstate commerce commission. This is the course he and Attorney General Moody urged upon special counsel Harmon and Judson because all of the evidence at hand pointed to guilt on the part of the roads, but none of it indicated individual offending on the part of managing officials.

This is precisely the course pursued in the case of the "beef trust." The suit having resulted in favorable judgment and injunction, the packers were warned that evasion of the decree would invite criminal prosecutions. These are under way. In the course of the Santa Fe correspondence the "beef trust" example was cited, and there is reason to believe the administration will follow the same course to the end in these railroad cases. Its desire is to stop the practices complained of, preferably by impersonal action, but when necessary by criminal prosecution. It is a correct attitude.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON.

All things come in due time, so don't worry and fret if you don't receive a proposal quite as soon as you would like.

Seed time and harvest was promised, you know, and it can't be said the promise has not been most sacredly kept—maybe a bit early, or a little late now and then, but never a miss altogether.

You may think your fortune is slow in coming along. That depends on what you mean by fortune. If you mean a rich husband, a rich wife, or a bunch of money, it may be slow coming, or it may never come, for such fortune is promised only to those who are qualified to get the stuff, and not to all who want it.

Fortune is promised a la Maeourneen—it may be for years, or it may be forever.

But if you regard opportunities for doing good to others, and for improving your own state and condition as fortune, then you will not have to wait long. In fact, it is knocking at your door, and it will keep on knocking for a long time.

That which suggested this talk was a letter, which follows, containing some timely information for all who are interested in good things, literary, or otherwise.

Mr. Quiet Observer—In your article in Saturday's Gazette, June 17, you quoted the poem:

"Touch us gently, Time!
Let us glide down thy stream
Gently as we sometimes glide
Through a pleasant dream;
Humble voyagers are we,
Husband, wife, and children three,
One is lost, an angel fled
To the azure overhead.

"Touch us gently, Time!
We've not proud nor soaring wings;
Our ambition, our content
Lies in simple things.
Humble voyagers are we
O'er life's unbounded sea
Seeking only peaceful climes;
Touch us gently, gently Time."

You stated that the author's name was unknown. I have this poem in an old volume of miscellaneous poems where the following comment on the lines is made:

"The following beautiful prayer by Barry Cornwall must have been breathed by his heart while sitting by his quiet fireside looking upon the face of his sweet wife and rocking the cradle of his golden tressed Adelaide."

Barry Cornwall was the pseudonym under which Bryan Waller Proctor, the English poet, wrote. He was born in 1787 and died in 1874. He married Miss Skepper, a daughter of Mrs. Basil Montague. Adelaide Ann Proctor, his daughter, also attained some distinction as a poet.

The poem, with the note attached, is well worth clipping out and preserving, for it is not only a pretty thing, but so true, so well worth "getting by heart"—not merely committing to memory, but committing to heart as well.

People are quite prone to commit things to memory, and let it go at that, whereas they should take them to heart. They also talk tongue to tongue, whereas they should talk heart to heart.

There is a lot of tongue to tongue talk, and it has scarcely a bit of heart in it, and is not even wholesome, much less heartsome.

Selfishness and self-pride is behind most of this tongue to tongue talk. Those who indulge in it usually have selfish motives.

Haven't you yourself talked long and sweet to a visitor, parted with her almost painfully, begged her to come back, and promised, even sworn yourself to go to see her, and as soon as the door was closed you thanked heaven that she was gone and hoped she never would come back again?

Nor are women the only ones who indulge in such miserable hypocrisy. There are men who make their living by dealing out taffy. These may be termed taffy grafters.

Nor is this sort of selfishness confined to individuals alone, but to social circles, cliques, clubs, and other social institutions, so-called.

Shall we exempt the church, or rather the churches, for the church appears to have been split up into a number of branches, or pieces.

This brings to mind a letter from a Friend bearing on this very point.

Friend Quiet Observer—After reading, "Well, what are you going to do about it," by a preacher in Friday's Gazette, and "Iconoclast's" version of what are you going to do about it, I was moved to give you "A Minister's Experience," thus dilated upon in an article published in the Christian Register, signed by Edward P. Pressy, Montague, Mass., which experience it occurred to me, would read very nicely under the heading of Quiet Observations, as follows:

"There are just the same reasons for fearing ecclesiasticism, as for fearing sectarianism, and no more, for they are the same thing. The fact that nine-tenths of all people do not take the churches very seriously is a good reason for believing that neither sectarianism nor ecclesiasticism is going to give us any immediate trouble.

"It would seem, after an honest survey of the difficulties of the church in managing society, that the real danger is coming from the enormous overgrowth and incrustation of Pharisaism in all churches, and nearly all classes of society as such. I am not exploiting now a theory of my own, but am speaking of the condition that confronts every man who tries to accomplish moral ends through long organized churches.

"He is sure to come, after a long while perhaps, to one of two conclusions, either that 'these people have always been this way, and they always will be,' as my ministerial friend's wife worded it to him in a parochial curtain lecture, or else he is to kick against the pricks till he dies of a broken heart, believing in human nature, but finding no fruit of his belief.

"It is a stubborn fact in a condition that we are looking at, and the fact is that a good proportion of the nice people in all the churches are trying patiently, often devotedly, pathetically, laboriously, charmingly to save the world in the old impossible way of Pharisaism. That is the immediate and now chronic danger to the church, threatening its very existence.

"Let me explain, and I am done. I have, for instance, never forgiven the first congregation I ever preached to for admiring the 'scholarship,' of my essay, and never once thinking of, or even proposing to do the least thing I said. It made a break in my heart that has never healed, but which got pretty well calloused over the first two or three years of preaching, with like results.

"I find that most churches do not exist for doing things, but are a habit, as the swearer said to the deacon, who reproved him, 'Well, Deacon, you pray and I swear, and neither of us don't mean anything by it.'

"As a rule church members care only for their own sect, just as it is in the cliques and clubs in the natural world outside churches. They are select societies who instruct their ministers that all they principally want of him is not to disgrace them in any way, to offend no one, and keep them together.

"The only real object, or excuse for the existence of any church whatsoever, is to save the lost members of society. A church that is not in that business has no sanctity or really whatsoever. When we realize this again, great historical churches will arise."

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 27.—The real estate boom in the Bronx is spreading in a new direction. By the end of July it is expected that street cars will be running from the railroad station at Fordham to the Pelham Parkway entrance to the zoological garden on the Southern boulevard. This new line will open up a large territory that has been heretofore practically inaccessible for those who cannot afford carriages or cab hire. Now the property has taken on a new value, and big tracts of land have been purchased in that section by speculators. The street railway was started only a few weeks ago, but the moment it was planned real estate men saw that there was big money to be made there and jumped into the territory.

In New York they do not wait for the street cars to begin running before they start building. As soon as the road is assured the contractors get busy, with the hope of having houses to rent the moment the road is finished. It was so in this case. There are a large number of buildings being erected in the new section which will be ready for tenants even before the means of transportation is ready to carry them to and from their new homes. They probably will have no difficulty in renting all the houses they can construct, because this territory is almost like the country, and many people will find there a chance to live a semi-rural life. Up to the present no large flat buildings have been built or planned, and each house has a bit of green surrounding it.

Will Analyze the Subway Air.

Dr. Darlington, the city health commissioner, got busy today on the subway air. He is having a chemical analysis made to see whether it is only disagreeable or really unhealthful. It does not appear in the record whether he has gone down into the big ditch with an ax and chopped out a few chunks of the atmosphere to carry away to the laboratory, or is catching it is a sieve. It is so heavy that he may have to use a derrick to get it above ground. Whatever his method, however, the people of the city will anxiously await the result of his investigation, although they have fully made up their minds that they don't care whether it is good for them or not, they don't like it.

Benefit for Slocum Heroine.

There will be a benefit next Friday evening for Miss Pauline Puetz, who saved the lives of many women and children on the day that the General Slocum was destroyed. Miss Puetz was a nurse on North Brother island, and she waded out into the river and dragged to shore many of those struggling in the water. She has been given two medals, one by the Volunteer Life Saving Corps and the other by the Gerry society, the latter because of the great number of children she rescued. As a result of her heroism, Miss Puetz is lame and subject to attacks of hysteria, and was compelled to give up her career. She supports herself now by song writing.

Fortune Is Quickly Saved.

The General Transportation Company of Buffalo, which operates an electric railroad, today saved $75,000 by filing a mortgage earlier than intended. The paper was filed in West Chester county and bonds the company for $15,000,000. In a few days the new mortgage tax law will go into effect, under which the company would have been compelled to pay one-half on 1 per cent for the privilege of owing so much money. It is reported that the company intends to enlarge its plant at Niagara Falls and therefor needs the money.

Honesty Its Only Reward.

James Brady, an employe of Bellevue hospital, is a firm believer in that perversion of the old saying: "Honesty is its only reward." Yesterday he found a purse containing some money and the name of the owner—a woman. He got on a street car and toted the valuables to their owner and left them with a servant. Today he received a letter thanking him for returning the purse with its contents intact, and dwelling at length on the beauties of honesty. Enclosed was his reward—one cent. Therefore Brady is out just 9 cents on the transaction.

Savoy Hotel Is Growing.

Despite the troubles of some other hotel men, the owners of the Savoy can see more money in sight if they only had more rooms to rent, so they are going to build a few. Plans have been filed for an 11-story addition, 25 feet front and 96 feet deep, to cost $70,000. The addition will be in Fifty-eighth street, and joining the Hotel Boikenheyn, which is to become an annex to the Savoy. Fronting as it does on Central park, the Savoy is one of the most delightfully located hotels in New York for those who do not care to be in the business heart of the city.

Wanted—An Animal Keeper.

New York is in need of an animal keeper and is willing to pay $600 a year for an expert. The municipal civil service commission announces that there will be an open competition for the job on July 13. In order to qualify, one must know a whole lot about animals, and must have had some experience. A little knowledge of the habits of the Tammany tiger is not likely to come amiss.

Waiter and Fowl Cause Much Woe.

Because George West, until recently a waiter in a Sixth avenue restaurant, ate half a chicken which had been prepared for a patron, he lost his place; the chef who gave him the chicken, according to West's version of the affair, was also discharged, and William Dunston, manager of the restaurant, was haled into the West Side police court this afternoon to explain why he had thrashed West. Mr. Dunston frankly admitted that he had administered "a few" to the waiter.

"Your honor," he said, "I did thrash this man. But he struck me first. He ate half a chicken which had been prepared for a guest. I charged him with it and he became insolent and struck at me. Then I threw him out of the place."

"Now, see here," said Magistrate McAvoy to West, "you took a chicken to which you had no right, and which you knew the cook had no right to give you. The manager thrashed you and you got sore. The case is dismissed."

ABOUT PEOPLE

Perils of Deceit.

Henry Clews, the banker, talked at a banquet about the danger of deceit.

"A New York woman," he said, "saw in a shop window in Fifth avenue a collar of pearls that she liked. She stopped her carriage and sought out the shopkeeper.

"'What is the price,' she said, 'of that pearl collar in your window?'

"'Six thousand dollars, ma'am,' said the shopkeeper, and he drew forth the collar and displayed its beauties to the dazzled woman.

"She took out her check book.

"'I'll tell you what I'll do,' she said. 'I'll give you my check for $5,000 and I'll send my husband to see the collar this afternoon. Don't tell him it is $5,000; tell him it is $6,000. Then maybe he will buy it for me.'

"The jeweler bowed and smiled. He had seen this sort of game played many a time before.

"'I wish you luck, madam,' he said, and the lady departed.

"Her husband she found in his office in a mood unusually tractable. He had sold certain stocks at a grand profit that morning. He consented readily, therefore, to go and look at the necklace.

"That evening his wife dressed for dinner with unusual care. She wore her most beautiful gown. She dreamed, as she dressed, of an affectionate husband clasping about her white throat a collar of pearls.

"And 'I bought that pearl collar,' were the man's first words when he got home.

"'You dear!' she exclaimed. 'Let me see it.'

"'Can't,' he said. 'I had it sent to my mother. You know it is her birthday tomorrow.'"—San Antonio Express.

Changed the Emphasis.

Some years ago a statesman arrived at the home of the Rev. Sam Jones and amused himself by talking to the minister's small boy.

"Look here, Sammie," he said. "I have a question to ask you about your father."

"All right," said Sammie gravely.

"Well, then," said the guest, "I want to know if your father doesn't preach the same sermon twice, sometimes?"

"Yes, I think he does," replied Sammie, "but the second time he always hollers in different places from what he did the first time."—Memphis News-Scimitar.

Generosity Declined.

Denman Thompson of "Old Homestead" fame tells this incident, which occurred when he was playing one-night stands through the middle west. The night the performance was to be given in a certain town there was such a terrific snowstorm that no one ventured out to the theater, with the exception of one man, who occupied a seat well back in the rear of the hall.

Undaunted by a "one-man audience," Thompson, stepping before the curtain, told the lone listener that they intended to give the performance from beginning to end, as though the hall were packed; that they had advertised to play that night, and that, to prove the company was thoroughly honest, and always ready to give a "fair deal," they would start the performance at the usual time.

This was too much for the audience, who had listened nervously to the remarks, so he shouted out: "Say, cut it out, will you; I'm the janitor and I want to get home early."—Boston Herald.

The Joke Unappreciated.

"The most apropos happening which I remember to have come into my 57 years," said Bishop Brewster of Connecticut the other day, "was a little detail in a church service. It sounds too good to be true, but I heard it.

"It was in the July of 1902, when I chanced to be in England. King Edward's coronation had been postponed because of his illness, and then came the operation and then the services of rejoicing over his recovery. I attended one of these, and it is a fact that the clergyman in charge, announcing the hymn from the chancel, said to us, 'Let us sing "Peace, Perfect Peace," in the appendix.'

"As the congregation was English, few noticed the 'joke but me.'"—New York Times.

An Enthusiastic Surgeon.

The late Jay Cooke was talking one day about Gen. Grant.

"Gen. Grant," he said, smiling, "once described to me an illiterate surgeon in the employ of a certain northern regiment.

"A promising young officer had been wounded, and this surgeon had dressed his wounds. Gen. Grant sent for the surgeon later to ascertain the young officer's chances.

"'He is wounded,' said the surgeon to the commander-in-chief, 'in three places.'

"'Are these wounds fatal?' Gen. Grant asked.

"The surgeon nodded a grave assent.

"'Two of the wounds are fatal,' he said. 'The third is not. If we can leave him to rest quiet for a while, I think he will pull through.'"—New York Tribune.

He Drew the Line.

By drawing the color line at a baptism the Rev. Garbutt Read, pastor of Mount Zion Methodist church, Manayunk, has raised quite a rumpus among his congregation. A year ago on Children's day the reverend gentleman started an innovation by kissing all the babies that were presented for baptism. The mothers in particular were pleased. Last week more babies than ever were presented for baptism, and the fond mothers were horrified and struck with astonishment when each babe was baptized and handed over without the expected kiss, just as if their offsprings were not as pretty as those baptized last year. The secret came out when the last babe was handed up to the pastor, a pretty pickaninny, as black as coal, which crowed for all it was worth. The pastor gave a broad smile and gracefully pronounced the benediction. It was the first black baby christened at Mount Zion in 56 years.—Philadelphia Record.

Mississippi Bloodhounds.

From the Springfield Republican.

The state of Mississippi is to go into the dog-breeding business, limited to one class—bloodhounds. Several recent failures to run down escaping criminals with bloodhounds and some mistakes made by the hounds in tracking the wrong person have convinced the officials of the need of improving the breed, the hounds being hitherto hired as occasion demanded from local parties. Mississippi has now bought the finest bloodhound within its borders, and will start a state pack.

Japanese Art.

From the Atlantic.

Japanese painting delights us by its delicate fancy, its poetry, its freedom, its spirit; but what gives these qualities special and enduring charm, what makes the play of fancy never wearisome, the liberty never mere license, is that they find expression in and through a framework of design so finely conceived that in it we see reflected as in a mirror the fundamental principles which govern all true art.

The Lobster Crop.

From the New York Sun.

The lobster crop is larger than for several years, and the fear that this necessity of New York life would disappear off the face of the earth proves to be unfounded. What a weight of despair this announcement lifts from mankind! It is not too much to say that the lobster is the mainspring of existence on Broadway.

Libraries in America.

There are now in this country nine libraries that have over 250,000 volumes each, and 92 that have over 100,000 each. Dividing population by number of libraries, it is found that there is one library for every 11,000 people.

PICKED UP IN LOBBIES

Andrews Working for Statehood.

W. H. Andrews, territorial delegate from New Mexico, came into the city from Washington on the Pennsylvania railroad last night, and is again at the Schenley. Mr. Andrews has been down at the National Capital urging his hopes for the statehood of New Mexico, which seems to be gaining something of a better outlook. In a short time Mr. Andrews will go to the southwest for the remainder of the summer to look after his large interests there.

Big Church Reunion Planned.

Two monster outings of the United Presbyterians of this district are planned for August. The members of the denomination in the immediate Pittsburgh district will hold their annual reunion at Conneaut Lake, August 17, and it is probable that there will be a larger gathering than last year when about 20,000 people were there. The arrangement committee is headed by the Rev. J. C. Kistler of Houston, Pa. The other reunion is to be held at Rock Point, on August 4, for which eight trains will be run by the Pennsylvania lines. This reunion will include the United Presbyterian people of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. The Rev. C. H. Marshall of Bonny Vista, who formerly arranged for reunions at Idlewild park, is arranging for this outing.

New Clerk for the Schenley.

As a successor to George R. Shields, the popular chief clerk at the Hotel Schenley, comes C. M. Collins, who has been head clerk at the Hotel Raleigh at Washington, D. C., for the past 12 years. Mr. Shields is to be head clerk at the new Fort Pitt hotel at Penn avenue and Tenth street, this city.

Brennen Goes to Harrisburg.

W. J. Brennen, chairman of the Democratic county committee, went to Harrisburg last evening to attend the meeting of the state Democratic committee.

To the Rockies and Coast.

Almost daily now large parties of excursionists are being booked by the railroad passenger agents. Among the last of those to be announced are two special sleepers of members of the Epworth league, starting Friday evening over the Ft. Wayne for Chicago, and thence using the Santa Fe to Denver. They are from Emory Epworth league. On July 3 there will be another party in two special cars from Beaver under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Appleton Bash. They will use the Pennsylvania and the Northwestern to Denver. Saturday evening a large party of physicians of Pittsburgh and vicinity will start over the Pennsylvania for Portland. They will go over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Northern Pacific route. They go to attend the convention of the National Medical association.

Leather Railroad Ties.

German papers report that railroad ties of leather are used on the Russian government railroads. All sorts of materials have been used for that purpose, but chiefly tarred wood and iron. No tie has given perfect satisfaction; the wood decays and the iron changes under the influence of temperature. United States Consul General Guenther at Frankfort, who has made this matter the subject of an official report, says it is expected that leather ties will not be perceptibly affected by either air or heat, nor will they split when nails are driven into them. If leather ties prove more durable than wooden ones, they may in the long run be even less expensive.—Washington Star.

Advice to the Negro.

The negro must cease opposition, as far as it is manly and consistent to do so, and work in hearty co-operation and sympathetic touch with the white man who is his neighbor. No one but the ignorant and narrow-minded white man and the same class of colored men are attempting to keep up friction and discord between the races. Wherever we find a man of either race stirring up strife, he is an enemy to the peace and prosperity of the south.—Booker T. Washington at Georgia Industrial college, Savannah, June 7.

The Front Porch.

The country is being edited nowadays from the front porch. For some seven or eight months of the year the front porch, like the platform of the street car, is of use only to get in on. But during the good old summer time it justifies its proper purposes. The front porch now ceases to be the mere threshold of the home.—Atlanta Constitution.

FAVOR HOLDING FALL PRIMARIES

Republican Committee Decides Annual Nominations Should Be Made in September.

CITIZENS PARTY JOKERS

Some important changes were decided on yesterday by the sub-committee having under consideration the revision of the Republican party rules. If the report of the sub-committee is adopted by the county committee primaries will be held annually in September instead of June.

County Chairman Ford met with Chairman Magee's sub-committee. The draft of rules presented to the county committee by Mr. Magee was taken up and there was harmonious action so far as the lawmakers went yesterday. There will be another meeting today. The present rules call for primaries on the first Saturday of June. During the last eight years the date has been shifted five times. It was decided to report in favor of annual primaries on the second Saturday of September for the nomination of candidates to be elected in the fall. The election of state and national delegates will be by direct vote. The county committee is given authority to order these primaries on a date to suit the time fixed for the holding of the conventions.

Extend the Hours.

Now the primary polls are open from 4 until 7 o'clock. The committee favors the extension of the hours from 2 until 7 o'clock. It will also propose a rule permitting both the regular Republican judge and inspector to sit on the primary boards. This rule is now in force in the county. As the new rules are being made for adoption in both city and county, there is a desire to have them uniform.

There was considerable discussion about the proposition contained in the Magee draft to forbid police in uniform from approaching within 50 feet of a polling place. The rule was finally allowed to stand. There were some advocates of a provision to prevent public employes from taking an active part in the primaries. It was decided the adoption of such a rule would look like a slap at the Citizens, and the provision will not be included in the party laws.

The Citizens party yesterday held what it labeled a county convention. The representatives of the payroll of the two cities and the county to the number of 462, met in the Bijou theater. There are 629 districts in the county and each precinct was supposed to have a delegate. Of the 462, presumably 334 were from Pittsburgh and Allegheny, where the Citizens are in control of the administrations. The other 128 no doubt represented county employes. These delegates were selected in secret and the voters generally had no voice in their choosing.

Submitted to the Collar.

The delegates obeyed to the letter the orders of the Citizens bosses. There was not the least independence shown and not a single protest entered against the clasping of the ring collar about the throats of these 462 political serfs. They did not even have sense enough to giggle when the platform declared: We pledge ourselves to aid in every movement which has for its clear and unmistakable aim the establishment of the people's supremacy." Again was the failure to see the humor in this: "The spirit of independence which manifested itself in the splendid victory won by its party three years ago has spread until, inspired by the overthrow of bossism here, the people and the people's cause are achieving remarkable triumphs in all directions." In fact the whole platform will be taken as a joke by a majority of the voters of the county.

The bosses failed to select a prothonotary, one candidate for commissioner and a nominee for director of the poor. Rather than allow the "spirit of independence to manifest itself" among the delegates and permit them to ballot for the three candidates, the selection was placed in the hands of a committee. Sometime between now and September a half dozen men will hold a secret meeting, when "we will not be inspired by the overthrowing of bossism," and fill out the ticket.

As these candidates had been slated by the bosses, the convention was allowed to nominate them: J. D. O'Neil, McKeesport, Citizens, recorder; R. J. Cunningham, Sewickley, Citizens, controller; Reid Kenne, Homestead, Citizens, treasurer; James A. Clarke, Pittsburgh, Democrat, commissioner; F. X. Barr, Edgewood, Democrat, clerk of courts; Henry Meyer, Allegheny, Democrat, register. Judge James S. Young, the Republican nominee for judge on common pleas court bench No. 2, was indorsed.

Admissions From O'Neil.

The temporary chairman of the convention was R. B. Ward and the permanent presiding officer ex-Congressman J. W. Brown. Denny O'Neil severely criticised the Republicans and concluded by saying, "I have talked along these lines so much that I almost believe what I say." He also announced he would favor only one term in office for every public official—in the future. The hit of the convention was made by Director Clark in inviting the delegates to dinner. In its platform the Citizens party claims to have accomplished the following results in the county offices in the last three years: Established order and method in county finances; maintained a model system of auditing; effected a reduction in salaries of offices under our control; instituted great activity in the building of roads and effected a large reduction in the cost per mile; secured a higher rate of interest on county deposits; credit for paying off $500,000 worth of riot bonds; abolished the fee system; claim there is no favoritism in awarding of county contracts; favored and still favor freeing all toll bridges; shown preference for old soldiers whenever the occasion offered; (nothing is said of the 57 veterans ousted from office by officials elected by the Citizens), and opened the door of political opportunity to all classes.

Needed the Go-Cart in His Business.

A man wheeling an empty go-cart at 2 a. m. yesterday attracted the attention of Officers Michael Ondry and Joseph Bodner of the Braddock force. He refused to stop when ordered. With the go-cart making a speed record he started to run, and only surrendered his prey when a steep hill turned it into a serious handicap. Then he started it down the hill to block his pursuers and made good his escape. The go-cart proved to be the property of E. W. Isaacson of 620 Braddock avenue.

St. Augustine's Pupils at Luna Park.

The St. Augustine Catholic church parochial schools held their annual picnic at Luna park yesterday. About 1,500 pupils gathered at the beautiful new resort and enjoyed an outing such as they have seldom had. They reached Luna in the early morning hours and remained throughout the day, many lingering to see the park illuminated. A special matinee of the open-air circus was given for the benefit of the children and they liberally patronized the many attractions.

CASTLE SHANNON ROAD MAY BE MADE ELECTRIC

Interests Identified With Large Real Estate Plans Desire a 99-Year Lease of the Narrow-Gauge Line.

Alexander Dempster, C. Fred Baxmyer, secretary of the Bon-Air Land Company, and others are negotiating with the Pittsburgh Coal Company for a 99-year lease of the Pittsburgh & Castle Shannon railroad. It is said the road will be converted into an electric line in case the lease is finally secured, and the last narrow-gauge railroad doing a general business in Allegheny county will pass into history.

The plan is part of a general proposition to develop the country back of the South Side hills. It is affiliated with the proposed "Bon-Air Street Railway Company," for which a charter was asked a few days ago at Harrisburg by the same parties.

The deal has not yet advanced to the point at which an announcement of terms could be made, but it is said the offer is an attractive one to the coal company, not only because of the offer itself, but because the lease would remove from the company the responsibility for the operation of the Castle Shannon as a passenger railway. The coal company bought the road in 1902, securing the valuable coal property tapped by the Oak mine, as well as market facilities and a well-established and profitable trade. The passenger business is only an incident with the coal company, and for years the operation of the road has not proved profitable, although it has made a better showing since it passed into the ownership of the strong interest. The Oak mine has a capacity of 1,000 tons a day. The coal is brought over the Castle Shannon and down the incline to the yard at the foot in Carson street.

The long-term lease of the Castle Shannon and its conversion into an electric line, would not affect the coal company's interest in the coal end of the property. The yard facilities will still be used, it is said. At the same time the West Side Belt line of the Wabash would give an easy connection with the mine and could be utilized for that purpose with almost no expense.

The Castle Shannon is one of the old railroads on the South Side of the river. It has been in operation for nearly 34 years, the road having been opened in November, 1871. It has between eight and 10 miles of track, and a sufficient number of passenger and baggage cars to transact a large passenger business.

JUDGE C. F. M'KENNA HOME FOR HOLIDAY

He Tells How American School Teachers Are Yankeeizing Porto Rico.

Judge Charles F. McKenna of the United States district court of Porto Rico and Mrs. McKenna arrived home yesterday morning after a nine months' absence among the star-spangled Porto Ricans. They left the island with the general exodus of other American officials and will remain here until October. Both are bronzed by the tropical sun and express themselves as delighted with Uncle Sam's new West Indian possessions.

"The wireless telegraph and the magical influence of the English tongue and American manners, have done much toward Yankeeizing the old Spanish island," said Judge McKenna. "All last winter we talked through the air from San Juan across the boisterous Atlantic to the stormbound lightship off Cape Hatteras, and within a week or two Marconigrams will pass between the Porto Rican capital and Atlantic City. Greater still have been the results which have followed the invasion of Porto Rico by the American schoolma'am. She is the best pioneer Uncle Sam ever sent out and she is accomplishing wonders in inspiring the natives with ideas of American energy and thrift.

"We need more schools on the island and more school teachers. We need people with capital to invest in railroads and people with that optimistic frame of mind which will teach the natives the value of hard work and the beneficent results of commerce. The climate is delightful and the Americans there are enjoying the best of health."

AWARDS BIG CONTRACT FOR BALL CARTRIDGES

They Are Equally Divided Between Three Companies, Each Bid Being Identical.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 27.—A contract for 9,000,000 rounds of ball cartridges of caliber .30 was awarded today by Acting Secretary Oliver of the war department, the contract being divided equally between the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, the Union Metallic Cartridge Company and the United States Cartridge Company. The bid of the Blake Rifle Company was withdrawn upon suggestion of the department that its policy was not to make an award where the establishment of a plant was contingent upon the fulfillment of the contract.

The bid of the three companies among whom the contract is divided was identical in every particular, the price of each being $42.50 per 1,000 rounds. The bid of the Blake company, which was withdrawn, was $32 per 1,000. In making the award, Gen. Crozier, chief of ordnance, said that "there was no competition in either the price, the time of delivery or any of the other elements of the proposals."

"Although the price bid is very high," says Gen. Crozier, "and the establishments having plants have not chosen to compete with each other, I nevertheless consider it desirable that private plants shall be prepared for and have experience in the manufacture of small arms ammunition, which is needed so desperately and in such large quantities in time of war. It is also desirable that the stimulus of the hope of private gain be utilized for the perfection of the material, and that the standard of the government product shall be sustained and improved by comparison with the best that can be produced by private effort."

COURT HOUSE MAY HAVE TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

At Present There Are Thirty-Three Direct Lines at a Cost of $5,200 a Year.

The county commissioners are considering the advisability of putting in a telephone exchange for the court house officers. The present service cost the county over $5,200 last year.

There are now 33 direct lines of the two telephone companies running into the court house. If one official wants to communicate with another it is necessary to call the general telephone exchange and often experience difficulty in getting the desired connection. The commissioners are inclined to the belief the installation of a private exchange would be a matter of economy and a great convenience.

MUKDEN IN MINIATURE.

Eighteenth Regiment Will Give an Exhibition of New Tactics Used by the Japanese.

The Eighteenth regiment, N. G. P., on Saturday evening in Schenley park, will show the people of Pittsburgh how the Japanese soldiers have been winning victories from the Russians. An extended order drill and sham attack will be held at sunset and the movement of the troops will be according to the same tactics which have been employed so successfully by Field Marshal Oyama and his generals in Manchuria.

It will give local people their first opportunity to see the new drill by a large body of troops.

"Big Frank" McCoy Is Dead.

NEW YORK, June 27.—"Big Frank" McCoy, the famous old-time bank burglar and partner of the late "Jimmy" Hope of Manhattan bank fame, died at the Metropolitan hospital on Blackwell's island today. McCoy for some years past had lived a hand-to-mouth existence on the East Side.

HUSBAND CHARGES WIFE WITH DECEIT

Judge Young Hears Divorce Cases in Which Desertions Figure Conspicuously.

Judge Young spent another busy day in divorce court yesterday, and, with the exception of one or two cases, completed the list. The most interesting hearing developed in the case of Winfield Kelly against Margaret Kelly. Fraud, Kelly alleged, was practiced by his wife in bringing about the marriage. She denied this when called to testify in her own behalf.

Possibly one of the prettiest libellants whose suit was on this term's list was called yesterday afternoon, when the suit of Stella M. Orr against Chambers S. Orr was taken up. They were married at her mother's home in Hoboken, and resided with her mother for a time. They went to housekeeping at Springdale and, it is alleged by the libellant, that her husband failed to provide for her and left her while she was sick. Her mother testified that her daughter came home sometimes suffering from hunger. The libellant's mother had to pay her car fare on these occasions, it was testified. Mrs. Orr's mother said her son-in-law was a scene painter and told her his marriage was a mistake, as he was barely able to keep himself and could not support a wife.

Mary Hamilton sues for divorce on grounds of cruelty. She says her husband, John G. Hamilton, choked her, threatened to kill her and drove her from home.

Frances Fritsch wants freed from Martin Flitsch on similar grounds. She testified that they were married in New York and lived for about four years in Newark, N. J. Mrs. Fritsch's attorney explained that a decree for bed and board had been granted the libellant in 1905, but this suit was for an absolute divorce.

The case of Clara W. Jeffries against Robert R. Jeffries was based on desertion. Mary J. Stafford had the same charge to make against George H. Stafford.

Cruelty was the charge brought by Virena Steffen against Clements J. Steffen. She said her husband drank and she was compelled to support herself by keeping boarders. Steffen is now in Louisville, Ky.

LORENZ IS REMANDED.

For Trying to Defraud Government He Gets Two Years at Moundsville and $10,000 Fine.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—George E. Lorenz of Toledo, O., who was convicted in the local court here, over a year ago, of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of letter box fasteners, was today remanded to the custody of the warden of the District jail for removal to the state prison at Moundsville, W. Va. August W. Machen and the Groff brothers, who were convicted at the same time, began serving their sentences some months ago. Lorenz's sentence is two years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

District Attorney Beach stated that Lorenz would not be required at the present time to plead to the indictment in the Machen-Crawford-Lorenz conspiracy case, involving the sale to the postoffice department of letter carriers' satchels and straps.

"BECAUSE OF OFT SPEAKING."

Mother Eddy of the Christian Scientists Believes the Lord Has Not Heard Prayers for Peace.

CONCORD, N. H., June 27.—The Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy has issued the following request to members of First Church of Christ, Scientist: "Hear Israel, the Lord God is one Lord. I now request that the members of my church cease special prayer for the peace of nations, and cease in full faith that God does not hear our prayers only because of oft speaking; but that He will bless all the inhabitants of the earth and 'none can stay His hand nor say unto Him," "What dost thou?" Out of His allness He must bless all with His own truth and love."

KLAUS J. STEINER ASKS NEW TRIAL

His Attorney Characterizes the Love Affair as a Purely Commercial Transaction.

RESERVOIR CASE STILL ON.

Attorney C. C. Dickey, of Shiras & Dickey, made his argument for a new trial before Judge Buffington in the United States circuit court, yesterday, in the case of Miss Edith Isabella Gibney of St. Louis against Klaus J. Steiner of Allegheny, in which the plaintiff obtained a verdict of $15,925 for breach of promise to marry.

In his argument Mr. Dickey declared "the jury broke loose and became either hysterical or moonstruck." He said the verdict was greatly excessive and he could not understand what the jury meant by rendering such a verdict against a young man who has not over $1,000 of his own, unless it was trying to get the money out of young Steiner's father." "The verdict was the result of prejudice," Mr. Dickey said vehemently. "The jury was prejudiced against my client because he is a man, and it favored Miss Gibney because she is a remarkably good-looking woman and more especially because she is a woman."

Mr. Dickey claimed the case was purely a commercial one on the part of the plaintiff, and said there was no love lost nor affection born on either side. He described the manner in which Miss Gibney displayed the jewelry she got from the defendant when they were engaged, and said no true woman would have gathered up her love tokens after they had been exhibited before a court jury and taken them away with her, after the case was closed, as it must have lost all value to her then except a commercial one.

No Romeo and Juliet Affair.

Gotlieb Steiner, the father of the defendant, was with him in court during the argument for a new trial, but neither of them took part in the proceedings. Mr. Dickey dwelt at length upon the bringing of the suit by the plaintiff and produced letters claimed to have been written by her, purporting that she would never bring suit for breach of promise, no matter what came between her and Steiner. He said it was no Romeo and Juliet affair, but a real money-making affair without a single heart-break. He blamed the jurors for being partial to the plaintiff and declared that they did not consider the issue from any standpoint of law, nor from the weight of the evidence. He criticised the court for not affirming the whole of the points in his argument, in his charge to the jury.

Charles A. O'Brien was present as attorney for Miss Gibney, but did not have anything to say.

At the close of Mr. Dickey's argument Judge Buffington said he would take the plea under consideration and render a decision as early as possible.

The case of Jonathan Clark's Sons, Co., of Chicago vs. the city of Pittsburgh over the Highland reservoir contract, was resumed in the United States circuit court before Judge Acheson. The prosecution is represented by Attorney E. Y. Breck and ex-Judge Edwin Stowe. W. W. Smith is counsel for the city.

Clark Tells His Story.

Fred Clark, a member of the plaintiff company, stated that his company had taken the contract in good faith and would have completed it according to the plans and specifications and made a fair profit, had not the city changed the plans and specifications a number of times, failed to furnish certain materials as it agreed to and given wrong measurements in the lines furnished.

B. S. Crocker, the supervising engineer who had charge of the work for the plaintiff company, explained technical points at issue in the case.

Donald Chisholm and James Richardson, of the Chisholm Heating and Plumbing Company, entered suit against Mayor Lauch Nose, pastor of the First Reformed church, McKeesport, and W. R. Shoemaker, a member of the church, for $1,000 damages, alleging deceit and fraud. The plaintiffs say that in May, 1904, the defendants promised to pay them $211 if they would not file a mechanic's lien against the church for work done. Relying on the promise the time was permitted to run for the filing of the lien and they allege the promise caused them to lose their security for the work.

Receiver Wants Injunction.

A bill in equity was filed in the United States district court by the Guarantee Title and Trust Company, temporary receivers for Myer Burke and Harry Yost, of the bankrupt firm of M. Burke & Co., against Morris Pearlman, a Penn avenue furniture dealer. The bill alleges that just prior to the involuntary bankruptcy of M. Burke & Co., Pearlman received several big shipments of furniture on 30 days' credit and stored the greater part of those shipments in a church avenue (Allegheny) storage house, and that part of those shipments were formerly the property of M. Burke & Co.

The bill asks that Pearlman be brought to face the charges against him and that the court issue an injunction to prevent further sale of the furniture in question, which is valued at $5,000. The bill further alleges that Burke and Yost went away after the goods were turned over to Pearlman and have not returned.

Priest Was Acquitted.

Before Judge Evans in criminal court the Rev. Father Caesar Tomaczowski, rector of St. Stanislaus Roman Catholic church in Smallman street, was acquitted on a charge of embezzlement made by Adam Brzezroki. The verdict was rendered after Judge Evans had given the jury binding instructions to find Father Tomaczowski not guilty. The suit grew out of the closing of the Peoples Polish bank in Lawrenceville last October, which was conducted by the priest's brother. Father Tomaczewski had acted as Brzezroki's banker, and when the latter decided to return to the old country the priest gave him a check on the Metropolitan National bank for $95, the amount of his savings. Brzezroki went to the Peoples Polish bank and turned the check over to Father Tomaczewski's brother, who gave him $85 and promised to send the balance to him in Europe, which was never done. When Brzezroki came back to America he found the bank had closed and entered suit against the priest for embezzlement. In disposing of the case the jury divided the costs, but Father Tomaczwski agreed to pay them all. Another case of embezzlement against the priest was not pressed when the verdict was rendered.

Scott Smith was sentenced one year to the workhouse. He was convicted of unlawful wounding in stabbing James Price of Thirtieth street last month. Other cases disposed of were: Henry E. Doyle, assault and battery, fined $20 and costs; Maggie Tolen, larceny, pleaded guilty, sentence suspended; William Hill, false pretense, one day to jail.

More Indictments Against Negro.

The grand jury returned seven additional true bills against Harvey Gracey, a negro, and alleged burglar. Five of the indictments charge Gracey with entering a building, one with robbery and one with carrying concealed weapons. Other true bills were: Burglary, Joe Cosgawapo; felonious assault, William Savage, George Jones, Frank Riecilla; embezzlement, Martin Schilling; false pretense, George Fuchs, Israel Meyers; aggravated assault and battery, Mike Regan; entering a building, White Dale; larceny, George Davis, Thomas Ford et. al., Peter Kress et. al.; receiving stolen goods, Bert Crouse et. al.; assault and battery, Charles Tyler, Frank Dodge, Robert Clark, Clarence Call, James Evans, Mike Parlock, Harry Rapp; nuisance, Daniel Carey; misdemeanor, Morris Levin, Robert Clark, Jacob Levine.

Teresi Virva sued John Borovcsik for $5,000 for alleged breach of promise to marry, and had a capias issued for the defendant's arrest.

Donner Files Exceptions.

Frank Donner has filed exceptions to the account filed by his brother, William H. Donner. The exceptions are voluminous and allege among other things that the accountant did not comply with the decree of court and failed to make discovery as prayed for and necessary to Frank Donner, as to the several matters involved in the accounting. It is also alleged the account is incorrect and misleading. This is the suit brought by Frank Donner to secure an accounting of stock, which he declared his brother held as trustee for him. The decision was in Frank's favor and an accounting was ordered. About $500,000 is involved in the suit.

Executions issued: Thomas C. Jenkins vs. Fred O. Wahlgren, Jr., $150; T. Tully vs. Agnes L. White, $75; Cyrus A. Ruffle, use, vs. Charles E. Bradley, $4,460; M. E. Collins vs. Ellen Barry et. al., $27; Joseph Zucco vs. A. W. Perce, $35; Arthur B. Pitts, use, vs. Willard Wilson, $28; Josephine F. Grease, use, vs. C. C. Herzman, $25; Samuel H. Rubinstein vs. George S. Doherty Mill and Lumber Company, $225; William J. McNeal vs. G. G. Wyble et. al., $242; S. A. Gilmore, attorney, vs. Charles Thorn, $42.

Joseph Boles has sued Dr. John David Shuror for $25,000 damages as the result of the death of Mrs. Boles. Boles alleges that the defendant attended his wife when she was about to be confined. He charges that the doctor failed to use due care and her death, he charges, resulted from the lack of skill of the physician. Boles sets forth that his wife died March 1 last.

Lena Levine has brought suit against Attorney I. Leonard Aronson to recover $5,000 damages for an alleged deception practiced upon her in connection with an insurance policy involved in a real estate transaction.

SHUFF TOLD TO ANSWER.

Plaintiff in Railway Suit Refused to Tell About His Finances.

The hearing in the case of John I. Shuff against the Philadelphia Company, the Pittsburgh Railways Company and the Grant and Liberty Street Railway Company was interrupted yesterday morning for a short time by the plaintiff refusing to answer certain questions of the defense. When Shuff was asked what his financial condition was and what bank account he had before the purchase and after the purchase of the property in the name in Grant boulevard he refused to answer under the advice of his counsel. The hearing was adjourned and the matter was taken before Judge Buffington.

After a lengthy argument the court decided that it was proper to show the financial condition of Shuff before the purchase of the property. On the question of when he got his knowledge on which was based the bill in equity filed in the case the court ruled that he need not in detail answer where and how he got the information, but he should tell in a general way. Shuff said he got the information from his attorney. The taking of testimony was then resumed.

Shuff was on the stand only a short time yesterday. Following Shuff, W. B. Carson, secretary of the Philadelphia Company, and S. L. Tone, first vice president of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, were called in an attempt to show that those companies were the real parties in interest at the time the charter was applied for. The taking of testimony will be continued this morning.

APPOINTS W. H. COSTER.

Chemist to Be the Head of the Bureau of Explosives Recently Created by Councils.

W. H. Coster of Shady avenue, Twenty-second ward, was appointed by Director Moore yesterday as the inspector of the bureau of explosives, recently created by councils. He was one of a number of applicants for the place.

Mr. Coster is a young man who was educated at Trinity college, Hartford, Conn. Some years ago he was employed as a chemist at the Duquesne steel works, but latterly had been the biologist and chemist in the bureau of filtration. He is a son of the Rev. R. J. Coster of Grace Protestant Episcopal church, Mt. Washington.

The appointment is effective on July 1 and the salary is $2,500 a year.

PASSING AWAY OF J. S. REYMER

Death Suddenly Summons an Aged and Prominent Pittsburgh Business Man.

PLAYMATE OF LAIRD OF SKIBO

Jacob Stotler Reymer, aged 73, for many years prominent in business and financial affairs of Pittsburgh, died suddenly at 9 a. m. yesterday of heart trouble at his home, 1130 Fayette street, Allegheny. When Mr. Reymer arose he complained of feeling ill and returned to bed. Within an hour he was dead. Mr. Reymer was the last surviving member of the confectionery firm of Reymer Bros., which he conducted in Wood street and Fifth avenue for 41 years. While at his cigar store in Wood street on Monday Mr. Reymer met several of his old associates and stated then he expected to be in the city again on the following day. Mr. Reymer was a playmate of Andrew Carnegie, Henry Phipps and others who have since become prominent in the business and financial life of this section. Mr. Reymer was born in Penn township, Allegheny county, and came of revolutionary ancestry, his great-grandfather, Peter Reymer, having joined the Continental army as a lifer in 1776, after coming to America from his birthplace in Germany. Peter Reymer was one of the band which wintered at Valley Forge. When peace was declared Mr. Reymer's ancestor settled in Greencastle, Franklin county, Pennsylvania, where he died. His son, Peter Reymer, father of Jacob S. Reymer, was born in Greencastle in 1798 and married Marie Evans of New York. The family came to Pittsburgh in 1816 and for many years the elder Reymer conducted a shoe shop in old Diamond alley. During the closing years of his life he was overseer at the Western Penitentiary. He died in 1876. Jacob S. Reymer received his schooling in the public schools, and at the age of 14 secured employment in a hotel and restaurant. After four years of service he went with Miller & Riekerson, prominent grocers of this city years ago, and continued in their services for 11 years. In 1861 he embarked in the confectionery business with his brothers, Philip and Harmar Denny Reymer, and until about four years ago their place of business was in Wood street, near Fifth avenue, but they sold their property when the erection of the Farmers bank building was proposed and moved to Fifth avenue, below Wood street. Philip Reymer died March 19, 1892, and the business was continued by the surviving member of the firm until a few years ago, when the concern was reorganized with Mr. Reymer at its head, but the active duties of the business were looked after by Mr. Reymer's former associates, John H. Smithley and B. Dangerfield. In 1859 Mr. Reymer married Lydia A. Black, daughter of John Black, who for many years was a prominent grocer in this city. Five children were born to the union, two of whom survive, Samuel S. Reymer, now in the west, and Miss Anna Reymer, at home. Of a large family of brothers and sisters the survivors are George Reymer of Mansfield, O., and James C. Reymer, president of the Pittsburgh Manufacturing Company. Mr. Reymer was second vice president of the Commercial National bank, one of the oldest trustees of the Dollar Savings bank, a director of the Commonwealth Trust Company, all financial institutions of Pittsburgh. Mr. Reymer was a member of the Duquesne club for many years. He was also a member and took an active interest in the work of the Second Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh. Mr. Reymer was the oldest roll member of the Scottish Rite Masons and a member of Pancred commandery, Knights Templar.

Funeral of George E. Macklin.

Funeral services will be held over the remains of George Edward Macklin at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Erskin D. Smith, 1517 North Sixteenth street, Philadelphia, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon and will be attended by officials of the Pressed Steel Car company, of which Mr. Macklin was an official. The officials who went east last night were Vice President James W. Friend, Treasurer P. G. Jenks, Auditor Samuel E. Moore, Assistant General Manager Christopher Elfun, Challis Bowker, superintendent of the McKees Rocks plant, and J. B. Rider, who was private secretary to Mr. Macklin. President Frank W. Hoffstot and Second Vice President O. C. Galey and assistant to the president, F. R. Rapley, will go from New York.

Miss Catherine Garvey.

Miss Catherine Garvey, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at her home, 46 Elm street. Miss Garvey was born in Smithfield street, was one of the early members of the old St. Paul's cathedral congregation and well known in church and charitable circles. Funeral services will be held over her remains at 9 a. m. tomorrow at the Church of the Epiphany, Washington street. Miss Garvey was a relative of P. J. Broderick.

LOCAL ARCANUMITES ARE IN OPEN REVOLT

Hold Indignation Meeting and Petition to Have High Rates Abolished.

A general revolt has taken place within the ranks of the Royal Arcanum throughout the country, particularly in Pennsylvania, against the action of the supreme council of the body in raising rates.

Revenue council of Pittsburgh held a largely attended indignation meeting last night in its hall, 243 Fourth avenue, and by a unanimous vote ordered that a petition be presented to the state grand regent to call a special session of the grand council of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of preparing an ultimatum to the supreme council demanding that the increased rates be annulled and that the old rates be re-established.

Unless the supreme council rescinds its action there may be a disruption of the organization, which has had such a remarkable growth in recent years.

INQUIRY INTO HOSPITALS.

Attorney General Directs Examination of Books of Private Institutions Drawing Aid from the State.

HARRISBURG, June 27.—(Special.)—Attorney General Snyder has directed his traveling auditors to examine the books of the private hospitals receiving state aid every three months, and report to him the number of free patients, the number of pay patients and the amount paid weekly by the latter.

This information will be compiled for use by the appropriations committee of the next legislature in considering the appropriation bills of these institutions. Heretofore it has been the custom to base the state appropriations largely on the number of free patients treated, but it was found that some hospitals had a way of manipulating their accounts so that they always showed to their own advantage.

Water Supply Company Enjoined.

UNIONTOWN, June 27.—(Special.)—A preliminary injunction was issued today restraining the Mountain Water Supply Company from throwing dirt and stones on the right of way of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and a rule was issued on the former company to show cause why an injunction should not be issued restraining them from constructing their pipe line parallel to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks, as now contemplated.

Strangled in Elevator Shaft.

MONESSEN, June 27.—(Special.)—Paul Hermann, chief engineer of the Monessen brewery, was strangled to death this morning while making repairs in an elevator shaft. While the elevator was in motion Hermann had his head through the weight shaft. The weights forced his neck down upon a crossbeam and he was strangled before the elevator could be stopped.

AN ORDINANCE—To authorize the mayor and the director of the department of public works of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company supplemental to and modifying and changing the agreement between the city of Allegheny and the Pennsylvania Company, dated November 1, 1901, relative to the elevation and depression of said railway between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge, in the city of Allegheny, so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing.

Whereas, On the first day of October, 1901, the councils of the city of Allegheny duly passed an ordinance authorizing the proper officers for and on behalf of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, relative to the relocation, change, elevation and depression of said railway in the said city between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge; the vacation and change of grade of streets and other matters incident to or connected with said change of said railroad, and

Whereas, Said contract was duly entered into on the first day of November, 1901, between the city of Allegheny as first party and the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company as second party, now therefore—

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, that the mayor and the director of the department of public works of said city, be and are hereby authorized and empowered, in the name of and in behalf of said city of Allegheny to make and enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railways of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, supplemental to said contract of November 1, 1901, in the form following, to-wit:

CONTRACT.

This Agreement, Made this.....day of.....A. D. 1905, between the city of Allegheny, a municipal corporation of the state of Pennsylvania, hereinafter called the city, as first party, and the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, hereinafter called the Railway Company, as second party.

WITNESSETH.

Whereas, Section 1 of the said contract of November 1, 1901, required that the changes at street crossings be made in conformity to the plans thereto attached and made a part thereof, said plans being three in number and marked respectively "Exhibits A, B and C" and identified by the indorsement or signature of the chief engineer of said railway company and the director of the department of public works of said city; and

Whereas, Said plans required that at the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing the two said streets should be elevated and should be carried over the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway by means of a bridge, the character of which and its location with reference to the existing street lines was to be as shown on said plans; and

Whereas, Said city is desirous of modifying the character and location of said bridge with reference to the present street lines, for the reasons that the plan has been found to be unsatisfactory to a majority of the residents in the immediate vicinity of the said crossing and that it would cost the city upwards of $50,000 to do its share of the work according to said plan; and

Whereas, Said railway company is willing that said change shall be made.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, it is agreed by and between the said parties:

(1) That the plan attached to the contract heretofore referred to in so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing is hereby abrogated and annulled; and that the said changes at the said Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing shall be made in conformity with the plan hereto attached and made a part hereof and marked "Exhibit A," and identified by the indorsement or signature of the chief engineer of said railway company and the director of the department of public works of said city; and

(2) This agreement shall extend to and bind the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, respectively.

Witness the corporate seal of the said city of Allegheny and the signatures of the mayor and of the director of the department of public works and of the city controller; and the corporate seal of the said Pennsylvania company and the signature of its.....vice president and secretary, the day and year first above written.

This agreement being executed and delivered by and in behalf of the said city entitled:

"An ordinance to authorize the mayor and the director of the department of public works of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, supplemental to and modifying and changing the agreement between the city of Allegheny and the Pennsylvania company, dated November 1, 1901, relative to the elevation and depression of said railway, between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge, in the city of Allegheny, so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing."

Approved.....A. D. 1905.

and by and in behalf of said railway company pursuant to resolutions of its board of directors, adopted.....A. D. 190..

JAPANESE LUNCHEON.

Manager Ingersoll Entertains Newspaper Friends at Luna Park in Novel Style.

Orientalism prevailed at a delightful Japanese Tormasha luncheon given at Luna park last evening by General Manager Frederick Ingersoll to his newspaper friends. The luncheon was served in the palm garden of the Cafe Neapolitan and was Japanese throughout. The spacious dining hall, filled with palms and decorated with Japanese lanterns, was converted for the nonce into a Japanese tea garden, and the meal being served by Japanese Geisha girls gave an effect that was most realistic.

The translation of tormesha into English is chicken and rice, and this dish, prepared a la Nikko, was the piece de resistance of the menu. It was prepared by members of the Japanese colony who make their abode at Luna park and was most palatable. Many other dishes were included in the menu. After the luncheon the guests were supplied with tickets for all of the courtesies of the popular resort.

Summer catarrh often develops into those annually recurring chronic ailments known variously as Rose Cold,

HAY FEVER or MILLER'S

ASTHMA

The name matters little. By either name it is a distressing disease, causing discomforts, disturbing the entire organism, and creating those physical conditions favorable to the development of more acute perils to life.

For all such ailments, as well as those that affect the bronchia and lungs, there is no treatment so effective in giving relief and ultimate cure as the cleansing and vitalizing treatment procurable only through the Vento-Medic Institute.

These are a few among a multitude who have been benefited by this wonderful treatment and will testify as to its efficacy:

Mrs. Mary Walsh, 1024 Windsor St., Allegheny, Pa.; suffered 18 years from Asthma, compelled to sleep sitting in a chair. Thomas Hanlon, 6 Industry St., Third ward, Pittsburgh; suffered 12 years from Bronchitis and Asthma. Jacob Schmidt, Monongahela City, Pa.; lungs badly affected. Harry E. Merritt, 512 Woodward ave., McKees Rocks, Pa.; coughing made him a shadow. Mrs. Mattie Kiebach, 711 Madison ave., Allegheny, Pa.; Tuberculosis of both lungs, believed herself doomed.

DOUBLE VICTORY PUTS PIRATES BACK IN SECOND PLACE

PIRATES TOOK BOTH THE GAMES

Clarke's Crew Show Their Speed in Double-Header---Pitcher Theilman Again Bumped.

M'BRIDE SHINES AS A STAR

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, June 27.—The Pirates took both games of the double-header from the Cardinals this afternoon, winning the first game, 4 to 2 and the second, 9 to 4. The pitchers in the first contest were Egan and Phillippe and Thielman and Flaherty in the second.

The Pirates put up a grand fielding game in both contests, and McBride, who was in Leach's place at third base, showed himself to be a coming star both in the batting and fielding line. He accepted all his chances cleanly, has a splendid throwing arm and local fans wondered why the Pirates' owner ever thought of trading him for Brain. Wagner and McBride between them handled 15 difficult fielding chances.

In the opening game the Pirates got after Egan in the third inning and scored three of their runs. In this inning a pass to Phillippe, a single by McBride and long hits by Wagner and Howard produced three runs. The other run was scored in the ninth when McBride reached first on an error and scored on a long two-bagger by Wagner.

The stands were well filled when the second combat was called by Umpire Kiem. Shay was out of the lineup and Brain was at his old place at short, where Josh Clarke was in the lot. Thielman was elected to work against the ex-champions, who had solved his puzzle collection before he had it fairly under way in Sunday's game. This contest went just five innings with Mr. Thielman before the Pirate cannons, when out he came and Surgeon Brown went to the rescue. A triple and two doubles, with nine other hits of various sizes and degrees, aided in bringing the Pirates' total up to seven runs before Thielman left the turnstile scene. Brown was a great improvement, and in the succeeding four innings allowed the Dreyfus lads only five hits and two runs, errors being responsible for one of the tallies. The scores:

OPENING RACE MEETING PROVES A BIG SUCCESS

Pittsburgh, Monongahela and Ohio Valley Circuit Gets Its Start Before Fine Crowd at Dawson.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., June 27.—On a track that was ideal and under the best of weather conditions, the initial race meet of the Pittsburgh, Monongahela and Ohio valley circuit was held today at the Dawson driving park. A crowd of 3,000 persons saw the races, all of which went off without a hitch. Today's events were a 2:40 trot and a 2:20 pace and a 2:18 pace.

In the first race, 2:40 trot, Jason Medium was an easy winner. He took the lead near the start and came out far ahead in all three heats.

Jason Medium, b.g., Bradford stable, Bardford, Pa.					1	1 1
Bonnie Benton, br.m., George Ellis, Kalamazoo, Mich.					2	2 3
Alledlin, b.g., Fred Jamison, Indiana, Pa.					4	3 2
Heuber, b.g., P. Keener, Morgantown, W. Va.					3	6 5
Lizzie Allerton, b.m., J. E. Barnes, Pittsburgh					5	5 8
Mary C., b.m., Col. T. B. Davis, Keyser, W. Va.					3	8 7
Sweet Lynne, b.m., Charles Atkinson, Norfolk, Va.					7	4 6
Joe Green, ch.m., Dr. C. E. Snyder, Greensburg, Pa.					2	7 4

Time—2:30, 2:30, 2:29¼.

In the second race, 2 2:20 pace, the five horses finished in the same place in all three heats, Minnie Thompson, driven by Jamison, being an easy winner.

Minnie Thompson, b.m., H. J. Jamison, Roanoke, Va.					1	1 1
Green Boy, br.g., R. L. Smith, Greenville, N. C.					2	2 2
C. M. W., b.g., C. H. Wably, Evans City, Pa.					3	3 3
Slow Boy, b.g., Roy Rist, Dawson, Pa.					4	4 4
Hartford, b.g., T. M. Oakes, Huntingdon, Pa.					5	5 5

Time—2:20¼, 2:20¼, 2:21¼.

The third event, a 2:15 pace, was the most exciting of the day. John Smith, driven by Null, went under the wire far in the lead in the first heat, and was picked as the winner, but in the other heats proved disappointing. After the first heat Alfafa, driven by Vboat, forged ahead, became the favorite with the betters, and won the race.

BRADDOCKS VICTORY.

Cushman Pitches His 13th Game and Makes It a Shut-Out.

Braddock played Steubenville to a standstill yesterday and won, 4 to 0. Cushman was on the rubber for Braddock and allowed but five hits, which were well scattered. But two men reached second base during the entire contest. Yesterday's win was the thirteenth one for Cushman out of that many games he has pitched. Score:

ARE FRIENDS AGAIN.

President Morton Patches Up Peace Between Rival Teams.

President Charles Morton of the Independent Association of Baseball clubs held a conference yesterday morning at the Carnegie club, Braddock, with Manager Dan McKim, of the Braddock team and Manager Harry Crawford of the McKeesport team to patch up the differences between the two teams over the game in which Crawford, objecting to a decision rendered by Umpire William Sims, took his team off the field.

Everything was amicably adjusted and the schedule of games between the teams will be resumed. Braddock will play at McKeesport next Friday. Sims was present at the conference and stated his side of the case. Crawford admitted that he was wrong in taking his team off the field instead of finishing the game under protest. The disputed game was awarded to Braddock.

AMERICANS STILL WINNING.

Tennis Cracks Won All the Matches Played Yesterday.

LONDON, June 27.—The Americans won all their matches in the lawn tennis championship tournament, in both singles and doubles, at Wimbledon today. Victory came easily, except in the contest between Ward and Wright and Mavrogordato and Evans, which brought out the best form of both sides. The last two sets were pretty close as shown by the score. Three vantage games were played in the last set and in the last game deuce was called five times. Larned and Clothier playing in perfect harmony, easily outgeneraled the Swedish champions, Hillerup and Larsen.

It is announced tonight that Miss R. K. Douglas, the English champion in singles, will defend the title. It had been feared that the injury to her ankle, while not serious, might prevent her taking part in the tournament.

All Bets Are Called Off.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, June 27.—(Special.)—Punxsutawney defeated Butler today, 2 to 1, in one of the warmest games ever played on the local diamond. Barring Campbell's errors the home team played championship ball, with Russell, Corrigan and McDonald as opportune hitters. A decision by Hazelton, calling a Punxsy player out who took two bases on a passed ball, came near ending the game in a dispute. All bets were declared off and the game proceeded. The score:

CHICAGO STILL WINNING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, June 27.—Detroit lost the second game of the series today to Cleveland, due to their inability to hit Hess and the heavy batting of Cleveland. The fielding feature was the beautiful one-hand stop and throw by Coughlin of a hard hit off Lajoie's bat. Attendance 1,500. Score:

JOHNSTOWN GETS EVEN.

Takes Second Game from York After Close Struggle---Catcher Badly Injured.

JOHNSTOWN, June 27.—Johnstown retrieved the defeat of yesterday by winning out over York today, 4 to 2, in a very fast game. Good was rapped hard in the first inning, four hits for a total of eight bases being made. Following that he settled down and pitched great ball, fanning the York batters with ease. Anderson, catcher for the home team, had his collarbone broken by a foul tip. Umpire McNamara failed to show up, and Miran and Lloyd worked. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

SECOND AVENUE SALE OF $40,000

Hochberg Holdings Are Said to Have Been Bought by Jones & Laughlin Interests.

A SQUIRREL HILL PURCHASE

The Jones & Laughlin Steel Company is credited with a purchase of $40,000 worth of Twenty-third ward property, which has just come to light. The property is known as the J. Hochberg holdings and was bought some two years ago by S. W. Vanderahl. It comprises 120x140 feet, facing on the west side of Second avenue, a short distance south of Rutherglen street and extending back to Compromise street. Six brick houses and two store buildings occupy the Second avenue frontage, and there are 14 other brick houses in the rear. Over a year ago the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company offered $35,000 for this property, but the deal was called off. The steel company now owns all the property fronting on that side of Second avenue from the Twenty-second street bridge to Lowry street, except the Hochberg lot and another of the same size at the corner of Rutherglen street and four lots at Second avenue and Lowry street. The Ames Methodist Episcopal congregation was the only stumbling block in the way of the company securing the last-named properties last year, as options had been obtained on all the lots but the church site, which the congregation would not sell at a reasonable price. Practically all the property referred to runs back to Lytle street.

Nice Sale on Squirrel Hill.

Through the office of William S. Burchfield Mrs. Louise Haller has sold to a local investor 120 feet of frontage on the west side of Asbury place, Squirrel Hill, for $15,500. The property has a depth of 103 feet, and is between Northumberland street and Irwin avenue. It adjoins the lot at Northumberland street and Shady avenue which the city of Pittsburgh recently bought for a site for a police station, and also the E. F. McCombs holdings. The buyer will build four brick houses at once to cost $7,000 each.

It develops that Frank C. Smith, proprietor of the Colonial hotel, made a very nice turn in the deal for the site for the hotel annex, which is now being erected on Penn avenue, near Sixth street. The deed conveying the property to Mr. Smith was registered yesterday. It was signed by Andrew Carnegie, Denny Brereton and John W. Herron, trustees of the Schenley estate, and the consideration was $382,000. The deed was also registered conveying the property from Mr. Smith to the Annex Hotel Company for $382,000. The lot is 47x169 feet, and the structure now going up is a 14-story brick and steel addition to the present hotel.

$100,000 Mansion for Woodland Road.

Woodland road, one of the most exclusive neighborhoods in the city, is likely to get another very costly mansion in the near future. About a month ago Maj. George M. Laughlin, of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, commissioned Architects McClure & Stahr to prepare preliminary plans for a fine residence to be built on his Woodland road frontage. It has not yet been fully decided whether the house will be built this summer or not, but bids have been taken. The residence contemplated, it is said, will be one of the finest in the city and will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Architects Robinson & Winkler have plans nearly completed for a brick school house to be built at Punxsutawney at a cost of $25,000.

Revised bids are being taken by the same architects on an eight-room school building to be erected in Christy park, McKeesport, at a cost of $35,000.

Dr. Adolph L. Lewis is having plans prepared for a three-story brick apartment building, which he will erect at Penn avenue and Thirty-seventh street at an approximate cost of $20,000.

West View is to have a $10,000 school house for which bids are now being taken by F. C. Mortsolf.

Oakmont Sale Next Week.

The Oakmont Suburban Home Company is preparing to have a big public sale next week to market the old Lee and Blackmore farms on Oakmont Heights, which it bought several months ago. The two farms contain 80 acres and will be plotted into about 175 lots facing on streets 60 feet wide. The grading will be started this week. The property is less than one mile up the Hulton road from the Hulton station and opposite the Oakmont club golf links.

William Jenkinson is the reputed buyer of the William Rossburg frontage in Lincoln avenue, Bellevue, the sale of which, for about $150,000 was reported in The Gazette yesterday. Mr. Jenkinson owns adjoining property, and has been one of the foremost men in developing Bellevue from the start.

In spite of the fact that the number of average-sized sales of real estate is somewhat smaller than brokers might hope for at this season, the business being done by the title companies is away above that of last year. The Land Trust Company has over 40 men at work in its title examining department, and has had to build iron racks along the wall to hold the mass of papers which can no longer find room in their big vault, which is 12x27 feet. For several months the company has averaged from 110 to 120 titles a month, and considerably over one-half of these have been insured. John N. Dunn is the executive title officer; J. Smith Christy, formerly of the Guarantee Title and Trust Company, is title officer, and John A. Shoemaker is in active charge.

The chocolate factory of S. S. Marvin & Son, which is being erected by Bollinger & Perrot of Philadelphia, at 5846-5900 Center avenue, East End, is attracting much attention. The plant will be complete, and the chocolate will be brought to it in the bean and passed through all the processes, before it comes out in the form of bonbons, etc. A 300-ton hydraulic press will be installed and a triple mill will be used to grind the cocoa. The building will be six stories high, 70x250 feet in dimensions, and will be completed in the fall.

Minor Realty Transactions.

Western avenue: The Union Realty Company sold for Albert S. Bierly to Mrs. Ida M. Allen a brick house on 27.5x125 feet in Western avenue for $5,000.

Allegheny: W. H. Walter sold for Mrs. Catharine Schultheis to Michael Kaiser the Schenley leasehold on two frame buildings, with 18x110 feet, at 514 Second street and 515 Tower street, Allegheny, for $2,600.

Summit Park: Keck, Helle & Daschbach sold for the Summit Park Land Company to Mrs. Chloe Glidersleeve two lots, 50x140 feet each, in Library avenue, Summit Park, for $750. The buyer will build.

Mt. Lebanon: L. D. Statler sold to George L. Mead two lots, 106x165 feet, at Academy and Lebanon avenues, Mt. Lebanon plan, for $1,600. The lots will be improved with a 10-room brick house.

Union avenue: The Lawton Real Estate Company sold to J. W. Hill an eight-room frame house on 26x100 feet in Union avenue, Thirty-ninth ward, for $2,800.

Forbes street: The Aronson Realty Company sold for Wilbur Pepeb of Baltimore to a local business man 1838 Forbes street, two houses on 20x120 feet, for $6,850. The houses are rented at $700 a year.

PRESBYTERIES HOLD SESSIONS

Three Presbyterian and One United Presbyterian Minister Have Resignations Accepted.

ARRANGE FOR INSTALLATIONS

At the meeting of the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church in the Oliver avenue chapel of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, the resignations of three pastors were accepted and an interesting narrative of the state of religion was submitted by the Rev. J. M. Work of Canonsburg.

The resignations accepted were those of the Rev. Dr. W. P. Shrom, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Evalina street, Shadyside, who will become pastor emeritus at a stated salary to be fixed by the congregation from year to year; the Rev. J. T. Munford of the Lebanon church, and the Rev. William T. McKee of the Amity church at Dravosburg. Mr. McKee has accepted a call from the Pocomo (Ind.) Presbyterian church. He was dismissed to the Muncie presbytery.

Mr. Work in his report stated that the number of communicants to be reported this year is 27,411, against 27,181 reported last year. All the churches in the Pittsburgh presbytery had preaching and most of them had two services each Sunday during the year. One preaching service was reported by 14 churches and four had services three-fourths of the time. The attendance at the morning services was 15,332, and at the evening service 13,301, while 12 churches report a larger attendance at evening than at morning services. Less than 10 per cent of the membership attended prayer meetings. There are 99 Sabbath schools in the presbytery and 5,341 pupils in full communion with the church. There are 29 societies for men, several for women and a number for young people.

Monaca Pastor Wants to Be Chaplain.

C. E. Ludwig of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian church was examined and licensed to preach. Tomorrow evening an adjourned meeting of the presbytery will be held for the purpose of installing the Rev. W. L. Nicholson, formerly of the Washington (Pa.) presbytery, as pastor of the Long Island church on Neville island. The Rev. C. S. Beatty will deliver the sermon, the Rev. J. A. Kelso will charge the pastor and the Rev. O. N. Verner will charge the people. The Rev. Dr. W. L. McEwan reported the arrangements made by the Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries and the board of publication for the issuing of the Bohemian weekly newspaper to be printed in the interest of certain foreign elements.

The Rev. I. A. Bowers, pastor of the First church, Monaca, Pa., was granted a certificate of good standing. He has made application for a position as army chaplain.

The commissioners to the general assembly, held at Winona Lake, Ind., reported. They advised that in the future, unless important questions were on the program affecting the local presbytery, that young pastors be commissioned to attend the assembly, as it is a great schooling for commissioners.

Monongahela Presbytery at Moon Run.

The Monongahela presbytery of the United Presbyterian church met in the Union church at Moon Run yesterday. The Rev. Dr. David Barclay acted as moderator, while the Rev. J. B. Jamison of Oakdale acted as stated clerk. By requesting the provisional session of the McKees Rocks mission to make its report at the next meeting of the presbytery, the troubles of the members of that mission which were expected to be aired yesterday, were dropped out of proceedings.

The meeting was enlivened by a spirited debate when the financial secretary reported. According to the recommendation of the last general assembly all moneys not designated for a specific purpose were to be turned over to the financial agent and apportioned pro rata to the various funds. This was opposed and the report instructing the financial agent to follow the plan was killed. The Rev. Dr. John McNaugher, a delegate to the general assembly, addressed the presbytery on "Psalmody." C. W. Fulton, a licentiate of the Wheeling presbytery, was received as a member of the Monongahela presbytery, to work at the Good Hope mission in Penn avenue.

The resignation of the Rev. W. M. Larimer, as pastor of the Verona church, was accepted and the pulpit was declared vacant. J. R. May of the Steubenville presbytery was extended a call. The Rev. J. M. Briceland was ordained and installed at the afternoon session as pastor of the Union church, Moon Run. The Rev. Dr. Barclay presided; the Rev. E. R. Davidson of Ingram preached the sermon; the Rev. W. D. Irons of McDonald addressed the people, and the Rev. J. D. Gibson of the Chartiers presbytery addressed the pastor.

To Arrange a Psalmody Convention.

The following were named to arrange for a Psalmody convention: The Rev. Dr. J. D. Sands, J. M. Wallace, S. W. McKelvy, T. D. Edgar and R. A. Elliott. The delegates selected were the Rev. W. J. Reid, the Rev. J. W. English, the Rev. R. M. Blackwood, the Rev. W. D. Irons, the Rev. E. R. Davidson, the Rev. W. H. Knox and the Rev. Dr. David Barclay. The lay delegates are M. J. Prenter, William Hiller, Dr. Ewing, R. O. Stewart, W. R. Truby, J. W. McHinness, James Aiken and H. W. McKee.

The committee on supplies reported the following: The congregation of Nobles-town to supply itself and the Rev. W. D. Irons appointed to moderate a call for a pastor. The West Pittsburgh church was granted $300 and W. R. Wilson was appointed to effect the organization of the Crafton church, $600 being given provided the congregation raises a like amount. The Rev. T. D. Edgar will be installed as pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church, Wilkinsburg, on July 11, when the Rev. W. A. Phillips will preside; the Rev. E. C. Cowan will preach the sermon, the Rev. S. W. McKelvey will address the people and the Rev. W. J. McCance will read the edict. The Rev. Edwin McClintock will be installed as pastor of the Chartiers congregation on July 18, the Rev. J. M. Briceland will preach the sermon, the Rev. R. M. Blackwood will address the pastor, the Rev. W. R. Thompson the people and the Rev. J. H. Watts will read the edict.

THE THREE RIVERS

At 9 o'clock last night the marks on the gauge at the Davis Island dam indicated a stage of 7.6 feet, and the river was stationary.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., June 27.—At 6 p. m. today the Ohio river at Cincinnati was 24.7 feet and rising. Today's departures of packets from the port of Cincinnati were: Virginia, Pittsburgh; Greenwood, Pomeroy, and City of Portsmouth, Louisville. The towboat movements were: Down with coal, Jos. Walton, Oakland, Pacific No. 2, Boaz and Mariner. The Crown Hill arrived from the Big Sandy with a tow of logs. The James Mcren is due up this morning with a tow of empties for headwaters. All of the boats which have passed down with coal will turn back with empties from Louisville for headwaters. The larger boats on the lower rivers will take the tows to New Orleans and other destinations. A report to the local weather bureau stated today a heavy rainfall had occurred at the headwaters of the Licking river and that the stream had risen four feet in a few hours at Fallmouth. Clear and cooler.

MARIETTA, O.—River 12½ feet and falling. Cooler. Keystone State down at 2 p. m.; Ben Hur up at 5 p. m.; Iron Age down with coal.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA.—River 12.8 feet and falling. Clear and cool. The French left for Creston, the Ben Hur for Pittsburgh and the Keystone State for Cincinnati.

POINT PLEASANT, W. VA.—River 13 feet 10 inches and falling. Down—Tacoma, Otto Marmet, Dave Wood W. H. Flint, Valiant. Up—Greenland, Cruiser.

OIL CITY—River 2 feet 10 inches and falling.

GREENSBORO—River 10 feet 2 inches and falling. Fair and warmer. Down, Woodward; up, Columbia.

WARREN—River 2 feet 2 inches. Fair and cool.

LOUISVILLE—River rising. In canal, 8.4; on falls, 6.3; below locks, 21.6. Clear and pleasant.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—River 10 feet and falling. Warm. Up—Queen City, Little Fred. Down—Tornado.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA.—River 6 feet 10 inches and falling. Fair.

WHEELING, W. VA.—River 10 feet 5 inches and falling. Cloudy and cooler. Departed—Queen City, Pittsburgh, 2 a. m.; Keystone State, Cincinnati, 6 a. m.; H. K. Bedford, Parkersburg, 11 a. m.

GALLIPOLIS, O.—River 20 feet and falling. Clear and pleasant.

RIVER MINES BEING RUSHED.

Miners Pushing to the Limit to Get Boats Ready for a Rise.

Every mine up the Monongahela valley is being worked to its utmost capacity just now and every miner is straining himself to get boats loaded ready for another rise. Almost everything afloat that was loaded with coal went down on this last freshet. There are lots of empties up the river.

The coal companies are already getting empties back on this water, which has begun to fall rapidly. The C. W. Thomas will arrive today and the Crescent the latter part of the week. The Helen White of the United Coal Company will make a big trip and gather a great many empties between here and Louisville.

The I. C. Woodward from Morgantown, was the only boat in yesterday. She had a big trip of passengers and a great lot of freight, both going and coming.

The Queen City will be in from Cincinnati today and leave this evening at 4 o'clock. Every stateroom has been taken for the trip.

The River Coal Company, owners of the Sam Brown, has filed a libel against the steamer John F. Klein and her owner, Capt. Klein, for $492.35, alleged to be due for salvage earned in saving the Klein from wreck at New Cumberland September 27, 1902.

The delegates from Pittsburgh to the waterways convention at Cincinnati, which meets tomorrow and next day, will leave for that city this evening. The delegation is composed of John H. Jones, B. F. Jones, Jr., A. M. Scott, Capt. Thos. Rees, Capt. William B. Rodgers, Capt. James A. Henderson, C. A. Rook, W. R. Rowe, O. S. Hershman, W. H. Seif, George S. Oliver, Joseph T. Nevin, John S. Craig, F. R. Babcock, John G. Stephenson, Jr., Wallace H. Rowe, John W. Garland, E. A. Kilzmiller and E. J. Lloyd. Nearly all the members of the delegation have announced their intention of attending the meeting. E. J. Lloyd and James W. Wardrop will represent the Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal Company.

HIVES---AND SCRATCH

No Wonder She Lost Her Otherwise Angelic Temper.

This is the story of little Sue, who was literally covered with a rash from the tip of her nose to the point of her toes. The Doctor said, "Her blood was out of order." Grandma thought she'd better have some Castor Oil. Little Johnny, who was the most up-to-date, said, "Give her one of them little yellow Matthews' Castor Oil Tablets, and she'll be all right in the morning."

Times change and we change with them, and yet there is truth in the old saying that "There's nothing new under the sun." So after all the change is often but one of form.

Instead of the repulsive dose of Castor Oil which would "not down," we now offer you a pleasant tablet which is easily swallowed, and which can be as readily taken by the smallest tot as the most aged sufferer. MATTHEWS' COMPOUND CASTOR OIL TABLETS should be taken whenever the stomach or bowels are out of order and a thorough cleansing and healing is assured. Their action is mild, yet effective. WORK WHILE YOU WAKE AND REST WHEN YOU SLEEP. Certain Cure for Chronic Constipation. Sample sent free by the Matthews' Remedy Co., 200 Broadway, N. Y.

WYETH'S CREAM of SAGE AND SULPHUR

THE WORLD'S ONLY TRUE HAIR RESTORER

This is our standing offer—We will forfeit one thousand dollars to any charitable institution, if in six months we fail to grow a full head of hair on John D. Rockefeller. Sulphur is the most necessary Constituent of the Hair—without it the hair is not nourished, falls out and turns gray.—Set fire to a lock of hair and you can quickly detect the odor of Sulphur. There is only one combination of Sulphur which the hair roots will absorb, and that Combination is

WYETH'S CREAM OF SAGE AND SULPHUR

It is the only Hair Restorer that grows hair.—It positively restores gray or faded hair—it quickly removes Dandruff—it makes the hair soft and glossy—it gives Life and Beauty to the Hair—it is Safe and Harmless—it is not sticky nor greasy. Read this. It will do the same for John D. Rockefeller.

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer as I notice a constant improvement.

SOMETHING NEW! "WORD HUNT"

$50.00 IN PRIZES

For Four Words Selected From

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAZETTE

Rules and Conditions of the "Word Hunt."

The hunt consists of selecting four words from the advertisements appearing in next Sunday's issue of The Pittsburgh Gazette.

In selecting such words you are privileged to use each letter of the alphabet four times, but not more.

Each letter of the alphabet has a value in points, according to its location in the alphabet. For example, A is one point; B, two points; C, three points, etc. This would make the letter Z count twenty-six points.

The persons selecting the four words aggregating the greatest number of points (on the basis described above) will receive the prizes. We give below examples to demonstrate the difference in value of words. Take the word "Furniture."

6—21—18—14—9—20—21—18—5
F—U—R—N—I—T—U—R—E

It contains nine letters and represents 132 points, whereas you take the word "Handkerchief."

8—1—14—4—11—5—18—3—8—9—5—6
H—A—N—D—K—E—R—C—H—I—E—F

It contains twelve letters, which only represent 92 points.

Answers must give the words selected, explain from what ad they were taken and where the ad is located in the paper. This is necessary to properly check the answers. After each word must be given the number of points it represents; at the bottom of the sheet the total of the points represented in the four words. Sign your name and address plainly.

Answers will be numbered as they reach the desk of the Manager of the Hunt and should a tie occur the one first received will be declared the prize winner.

Every person is eligible to enter the Hunt except employes of The Pittsburgh Gazette and members of their families.

All answers must be sent in on the blank form provided in The Sunday Gazette.

No contestant will be awarded more than one prize.

All answers must be in The Gazette office by 9:00 a. m. of the following Thursday.

Answers must be addressed to Manager "Word Hunt," The Gazette, Pittsburgh, Pa., and either sent by mail or delivered in person at our Business Office.

Any answer which does not comply strictly to the foregoing rules will not be considered.

Any points not covered in the above rules will be decided in an equitable manner by the Sunday Editor of The Gazette and the Manager of this contest.

SOCIETY

THE best man and ushers have been selected to complete the bridal party which will attend Miss Alice Holdship and the Rev. Edward Twitchell Ware at their wedding next Friday. Mr. Ware has chosen George Payne, of Erie to serve as his best man, and the ushers will be Willis Wood of New York city, Burton Twitchell of Hartford, Conn., a cousin of Mr. Ware; Dale Tate and Clarence Fincke, both of Sewickley; Henry K. Siebeneck, of Allegheny and Stuart Holdship Robinson of Pittsburgh. The wedding will take place at 5 o'clock, Friday afternoon, in the First Unitarian church, Morewood and Ellsworth avenues, with the Rev. Walter L. Mason, pastor of the church, as officiant. In addition to the men, the bridal procession will include Mrs. Charles Frederick Holdship, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, as matron of honor; and little Miss Ruth Anna Anderson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hartley Anderson, as flower maiden. The guest list for the ceremony will be limited and even smaller will be that for the reception, which will be given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Holdship, in Wallingford street, Shadyside, after the ceremony. The prospective bridegroom is a former resident of Hartford, but is now chaplain of the Atlanta university, Atlanta, Ga. He and his fiancee have made no plans as to where they will be at home at the conclusion of their wedding trip.

Farewell for Mrs. Tindle.

Pink and white sweet peas, roses of the same colors, with here and there a touch of yellow marguerites, formed a very effective decorative scheme at the reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Biddle Smith at "Oak Grove," her home in Sewickley. The reception was given from 4 until 6 o'clock, as a farewell for Mrs. James Robert Tindle, who will leave soon for Valley Forge to spend the summer with her parents, Senator and Mrs. Philander Chase Knox. Mrs. Smith and her guest of honor received together, Miss Althea Mohler, Mrs. Tindle's house guest, standing with them, while as assistants there were Mrs. David S. Henry, Mrs. William D. Henry, Mrs. George Hamon Singer, Mrs. William Marcellus Scaife, Mrs. Edward Hanna Small, Miss Alice Wood Tindle, Mrs. George Phelps Rose, Mrs. Henry Buhl, Jr., Mrs. John T. Findley, Mrs. George R. Clapp, Mrs. John D. McCord, Mrs. DeWitt B. Nettleton, Miss Virginia Chaplin, Mrs. William Haworth, Miss Lucy Haworth, Miss Elizabeth Y. Love, Miss Margaret Graham, Miss Marguerite Singer, Miss Mary Phelps, Miss Mary Formby, Miss Fredericka Hay, Miss Agnes Black, Miss Marion Clapp, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Bessie Hamilton, Miss Hester Singer, Miss Jane Nevin and Miss Elizabeth Irwin. The afternoon's entertainment was followed by an informal supper for the aids.

Mills-Baldridge Wedding Today.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Mills of Braddock, and Clarence Ray Baldridge will take place at 8 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. O. H. Phillips, pastor of the First Christian church, will officiate. The matron of honor will be Mrs. John T. Jones of Youngstown, and the bridesmaids will include Miss Mabel Mills, a sister of the bride, and Miss Bessie Strong. Carl Baldridge, a brother of the groom, is to serve as best man, and the ushers will be Dr. W. W. Mills and Clyde H. Oskin. The flower girls will be Laird Mills and Isabel McDonald, the latter of Youngstown. The bride-elect gave a rehearsal dinner last evening for the members of the bridal party. Miss Mills is a granddaughter of Isaac Mills, the first burgess of Braddock, and a great-granddaughter of Stephen Mills, who settled at Braddock in 1817. The groom is a son of John Baldridge, also one of the earliest settlers in Braddock.

McMurtrie-Glass.

Mrs. Martha A. McMurtrie of Oakland avenue announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Nellie La Verne, to George Hammond Glass of Sheridan avenue and Station street, East End. The wedding was a quiet home affair, taking place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. Only immediate relatives and a few personal friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. William J. Reid, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. The maid of honor was Miss Amanda Jane McNulty of Washington, Pa., and the best man Charles Henry Smith of the East End. Miss Jessie E. Yingling, a little cousin of the bride, of Wellsburg, W. Va., acted as flower girl. A reception followed the ceremony. On their return from a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 409 Oakland avenue, but later will reside in the East End.

Fincke-Hallstein.

The marriage of Lula C. Fincke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fincke of Esplanade street, Allegheny, and Walter P. Hallstein of Ft. Wayne, Ind., was solemnized at the home of the bride last evening, the Rev. J. Irving Lantz, pastor of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, officiating. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Lillian Fried as maid of honor, while Harry J. Fincke, a brother, acted as best man. The bride wore a gown of white bastiste, trimmed with Irish pointe and valenciennes lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The maid of honor, in pink net over white, carried a cluster of pink carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Martha Kregart. Mr. and Mrs. Hallstein left during the evening for the east, and after August 1 will make their home in Ft. Wayne.

Martin-Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of College avenue, East End, have issued cards announcing the marriage of their third daughter, Miss Helen Martin, and Leonce Shelby Shields, formerly of Greensburg, but now of this city. The wedding was a quiet home event of last evening. Only the members of the two families witnessed the ceremony, which was performed at 7:45 o'clock by the Rev. William Thompson, rector emeritus of St. James' Memorial Protestant Episcopal church. The couple was unattended. Green and white were the colors carried out in the simple decorations. No at home days have been named, but Mr. and Mrs. Shields will receive their friends at the Elmhurst inn, Sewickley, on their return from their wedding trip, some time in August.

The Wilson Family in Connecticut.

Mrs. George H. Wilson and her two younger daughters, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Anne Wilson, arrived in Boston from Europe a short time ago and are now with Mrs. Wilson's mother in Plymouth, Mass. During next week they will go to Lynn, Conn., to open the house which they have taken there for the summer and where they will be joined shortly after by Mr. Wilson, who is still in Pittsburgh. The son-in-law and oldest daughter of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haven Schauffler, will summer at Irvington-on-the-Hudson.

Hirth-Powell.

At the Hirth homestead in Tenth avenue, Homestead, last evening, Miss Viola Hirth was married to Attorney Archibald C. Powell, borough solicitor of Glassport, and a brother of Mrs. C. W. Ashley of Homestead. Relatives and close friends only were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Nathan Pushane Rynson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and was followed by a wedding supper. The bride, who was attended by Miss Florence Schuchman as flower girl, was given away by her brother, Walter Hirth. The couple left on a trip east.

Miss Arbuckle Weds.

CLEVELAND, June 27.—(Special.)—Cornelius Van Wagoner and Miss Emma Arbuckle were married at noon today at the home of Mrs. George B. Hathaway, No. 3573 Superior street. Mr. Van Wagoner is a prominent hardware manufacturer and Miss Arbuckle is the daughter of Isaac Arbuckle of the firm of Arbuckle Brothers, coffee merchants of New York and Pittsburgh. She has lived in Cleveland for several years. Mr. Van Wagoner is 60 years of age and his bride is 28.

Mrs. Frew Receives Friends.

Mrs. William Nimick Frew received with her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Frew, at the informal at-home which the latter gave yesterday afternoon. The hours were from 3 until 6 o'clock. There was no special guest of honor and no assistants. A large centerpiece of crimson rambler roses occupied the dining room table, and in the other rooms were vases of various June flowers, including roses, sweet peas and phlox.

Rehearse for the Wedding.

In the Shadyside Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Louise Mae Gable, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Gable of Neville street, and Harold Giffings, took place at 5 o'clock. The wedding will be an event of this afternoon at the same hour in the church. The music will be a feature, Prof. Joseph H. Giffings and Luigi von Kunits playing before the ceremony and the choir choir singing the wedding march.

Hold Family Reunion.

At the concluding social event in a series of teas given by Mrs. Cameron C. Smith of Oakmont a family reunion was held in the new home of the hostess yesterday afternoon. Sixty-five guests were present, and during the afternoon four-hand euchre was played, seven tables being called into use. The prizes went to Miss Nettie Smith, Mrs. H. G. Smith, J. L. Smith and Charles Smith. The children were also entertained with various games.

Will Observe at Home Day.

Mrs. Hugh Bole Morrow of Euclid avenue, Bellevue, will be at home on Friday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock. Her sister-in-law, Miss Eleanor Morrow, will receive with her, and as assistants there will be Miss Annie Cooper, Miss Florence Keyser and Miss Isabel Hogg.

Miss Loader Sails for Europe.

NEW YORK, June 27.—(Special.)—Among the passengers who sailed today for Liverpool on the Cunard line steamship Carpathia were Miss A. A. Loader of Pittsburgh and Mrs. E. L. Stone, Mr. E. J. Stone and Miss E. Stone of Wheeling, W. Va.

Will Be Guest of Westinghouses.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 27.—(Special.)—Miss Wadsworth of this city will be a guest during the summer of Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse at Lenox.

Society Notes.

The pupils of C. S. Niesen will give a recital at his studio, No. 440 Sixth avenue, tomorrow evening. Those who will take part are: Miss Harlette Slatterly, Miss E. Luthringer, Miss Gertrude Zinsmeister, Miss Minnie Slatterly, Miss Clara C. Nickel, T. M. Reed, John Lane, C. B. Gearing, J. C. Ebert, M. J. Niesen, Miss Grace May Sullivan, E. J. Reilly, Miss Jennie Thomas, Miss Minnie C. Berger, D. A. McCarthy, Miss Bessie Loretta Good.

Frank W. and Phil H. Stevenson, sons of Attorney and Mrs. A. B. Stevenson of Parker avenue, Braddock, entertained 125 of their friends last evening at an informal dance in the Carnegie club gymnasium.

Walter Estep and Miss Pessie Horne, well known young people of McKeesport, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. Horne, No. 1330 Locust street, last evening by the Rev. B. M. Sharp, pastor of the Shoemaker Memorial United Brethren church.

Miss Mabel Rowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rowell of Munhall, and John C. Egan of Homestead were married yesterday by the Rev. C. E. Weaver, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Homestead. After a reception they left on a trip east. On their return they will live in Homestead.

The little girls of North Braddock held a successful lawn fete yesterday afternoon and evening on the property of David F. Melville, Bell and Jones avenues, North Braddock. The lawn was lighted with Japanese lanterns and the booths were all draped in white. Fancy work, flowers, candy and refreshments were sold. The children will use the funds to furnish a room in the Braddock General hospital. Those in charge of the affair were Ruth Melville, Margaret Scott, Helen Maggiul, Rebecca Collingwood, Florence Rosenbloom, Elizabeth, Dorothy and Myra Williams. The girls are from 8 to 12 years of age.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Trinity Children to Go to Fairoaks.

Sixty children from the Trinity Episcopal church kindergarten will be taken to Fairoaks to the summer home of the Sewickley Fresh Air Society on Monday morning, July 3. When they return a party of children from the First Presbyterian church will become the guests of the society. The Sewickley organization, which has been in existence for eight years, has given outings to the children of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, several parties being sent each season from different churches, others being made up by the visitors of the Pittsburgh Association for the Improvement of the Poor and other similar organizations.

The summer home at Fairoaks is set in the midst of 50 acres of beautiful rolling country, with fields and trees and streams. The house is new and will accommodate 60 children at one time, this being the number usually taken out for a two weeks' outing. The officers of the association are: Mrs. Alexander Laughlin, president; Mrs. Frank Semple, Mrs. George Clapp and Mrs. Samuel Gilson, vice presidents; Mrs. Robert W. Wardrop, secretary, and Mrs. James Todd, treasurer.

Postpone Picnic Until Fall.

The social committee of the Homestead Woman's club met last evening at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Robert D. Bryce, and decided to postpone the club picnic until September. The committee had arranged to hold the picnic next Friday in the West Homestead park, but their plans were upset by the disabling of the traction line, for which there seems to be no immediate remedy. Consequently, the committee last evening decided to postpone the picnic until September, when all of the club women shall have returned from their summer outings, and then will give a corn roast in the West Homestead park, the women going out for the day and their husbands and members of their families joining them for supper in the evening.

Graduate From Wellesley.

A number of Pittsburgh people went on last week for the commencement exercises at Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass., yesterday. In the graduating class were seven young women from this city, all of them members of the local Wellesley club. They were Miss Mary Gillespie, Miss Olive Nevin, Miss Rachel Pflaum, Miss Marie Milliken, Miss Eliza McCayela, Miss Katherine McCague and Miss Olive Clause. Among their friends who were present for the commencement exercises were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Gillespie, Mrs. John G. Nevin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. McCague, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Milliken and Mrs. Magnus Pflaum, and Mr. and Mrs. Clause of Sewickley.

Will Settle Their Accounts.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association will be held next Friday morning, when the accounts of the lawn fete conducted last week on the college grounds will be settled. The rain which came late in the afternoon proved a damper on the plans of the women, and in consequence the attendance was smaller than expected, though the kindergarten college building was crowded during the evening to an uncomfortable degree. Because of the storm the receipts were not as large as the women had hoped.

Stevenson Art School Exhibition.

The tenth annual exhibition of the Stevenson art school will be held in the city studios, recently removed to 606 Wood street, on Saturday, July 1, from 12:30 until 5 o'clock. During July a class of art students will work at the Stevenson summer art school, located in the studio on the Mt. Lebanon road 15 minutes' ride from the postoffice. It adjoins the home of the principal, H. S. Stevenson.

In the Oil fields.

The Yellow Creek district, Calhoun county, continues to lead in completions and the average size of its new wells. In the northeast end of the district the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the M. A. Wilson farm through the Berea grit and will have a producer, good for 150 barrels a day. The same company has completed No. 6 on the Clark-Camden farm and has a show for a 10 or 20-barrel producer in the same formation. In the Folsom district, Harrison county, the South Penn has completed its test on the T. B. Moore farm and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid. It will be given a shot and may improve. In the Salem district, the same company has given its test on the G. W. Haskins farm a shot and the hole has filled up 1,400 feet with fluid. It will make a small producer. The same company is drilling in the Gordon and its test on the S. D. Williams farm, and the hole has filled up 2,000 feet with fluid. The Carter Oil Company & Wilson have drilled their test on the G. K. Marshall farm eight feet into the Gordon and have a show of oil. They are still drilling and expect another pay.

In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 7 on the J. L. Price farm 12 feet into the Gordon and has a show for a good producer. Soon after the pay was tapped the well made three flows. The same company has drilled its test on the James Wade farm 14 feet into the Gordon and has a show for a small well. No. 50 on the B. W. Peterson farm has been drilled five feet into the Gordon and has a very light show of oil.

LEGAL NOTICES.

IN the court of common pleas No. three, of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania. In the matter of the petition of William J. Walker, for the satisfaction of a mortgage. No. ——, August term, 1905. To James Adams, or his successor or successors in interest: Take notice that on June 7th, 1905, William J. Walker presented his petition to the court of common pleas No. three of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, praying for an order directing that satisfaction be entered of record of a certain mortgage made by Benjamin Hutchinson and James E. Ledlie to George Ledlie, dated September 7th, 1858, for $9,525.69, recorded in Mortgage book Vol. 9, page 368, on all and singular those two several lots of ground situate in the First ward of the city of Pittsburgh, county of Allegheny and state of Pennsylvania, marked and numbered in the general plan of the said city of Pittsburgh as Nos. 220 and 218, each lot having a front or breadth of 35 feet and extending back 80 feet in depth, bounded by Front street, by lots Nos. 230 and 248, by Second street, by lots Nos. 228, 247. Said petition also sets forth that the petitioner is the owner of a portion of the above described real estate; that said mortgage was on the 8th day of September, A. D. 1858, assigned to one James Adams; that the present holder or holders thereof are unknown to petitioner; that no satisfaction appears upon the record of said mortgage and it is presumed, from lapse of time, to have been paid. The court made an order directing that notice of said petition be given to the holder or holders of said mortgage if to be found in said Allegheny county, and, if not, notice of this proceeding should be given by publication, requiring them to appear at the next term of said court and answer said petition. Now, therefore, I James W. Dickson, sheriff of Allegheny county, in compliance with the order of the court, do hereby give notice to all parties interested in said mortgage and to all whom it may concern of the facts set forth above and in said petition, and do further notify and require them to appear in said court at the next term thereof and answer said petition, and, in default thereof, further application to the court will be made for the relief demanded. James W. Dickson, sheriff. William W. Wishart, No. 454 Diamond street, Attorney for Petitioner.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the governor of Pennsylvania on the 26th day of July, 1905, by David E. Davis, Lawrence Schnapps, J. R. Miller, C. S. Cochran and Charles Barnett, under the act of assembly entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 29, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called "Pittsburgh and Brunots Island Bridge Company," the character and object of which is the construction and maintenance of a bridge over the back channel of the Ohio river between the borough of McKees Rocks and Brunots Island, in Allegheny county, and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of said act of assembly and supplements thereto. W. S. Miller, solicitor.

Section 1.—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of

STOCKS OPENED STRONG, BUT REACTED SLIGHTLY

Steel Preferred Advanced to Par, but Lost the Gain. Pittsburgh Coal Preferred and Westinghouse Electric Closed Lower.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market opened active and strong yesterday, and during the first hour general advances were scored. Then the long-delayed profit-taking ensued, during which prices receded slightly. There was another advance to the highest prices of this movement, but during the closing hour profit-taking was again in evidence and the close was at slight declines for the day. The total sales approximated 750,000 shares.

For the first time in nearly a week London prices for American securities came higher, the largest advances being in Steel preferred and Union Pacific. English consols were fractionally higher, and a better tone was reported in continental markets, said to be due to a better feeling regarding the diplomatic situation in connection with the Moroccan question. Foreigners were moderate buyers of stocks in New York, their purchase being variously estimated at from 40,000 to 50,000 shares. Their favorites with the foreigners appeared to be United States Steel preferred, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio, and these stocks were strong and higher.

During the morning session Steel preferred reached par for the first time in weeks, and the common rallied to 35¼. The latter closed ¼ higher for the day, but the preferred closed unchanged. Tennessee Coal and Iron was quite strong, and more active than for some time past, advancing to 88 and closing with a gain of 2 per cent. Colorado Fuel and Iron and Republic Iron and Steel common and preferred also closed higher, while Locomotive common closed a fraction lower. Iron trade conditions were reported as more cheerful, and confident expressions were heard as to the future provided crop expectations are realized.

Erie issues were the active features of the market during the entire day. The buying of the common was said to be particularly good, some traders being of the opinion that Vanderbilts were acquiring a large holding of the stock. It may be recalled that the last Lake Shore report showed that that company had gold about $4,000,000. Reading common during 1904, and it was assumed that Baltimore & Ohio had done likewise, the holdings of these two companies being the same a year or so ago. When this was learned the street jumped to the conclusion that the Vanderbilts were putting the proceeds of its sale of a portion of its Reading holdings into Erie. Of course there is no official information on this subject, but it furnishes a working theory, so to speak, for the speculative activity in Erie common. Reading rallied to its former record price of 99¾, but subsequently lost the gain and closed at a net loss of ½ per cent. Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio and Norfolk & Western closed a fraction higher.

Union Pacific was very strong in the early part of the day, advancing to 129, but later reacted to 127½, and closed at a net decline of 1¼ per cent. Southern Pacific closed ½ per cent lower and St. Paul 1¼ per cent lower. The reaction was probably aided by the strength in wheat, which rallied 2 cents for the September option and closed at the top.

Call loans remained easy, closing at 2 per cent, but time loans were a little firmer. Wall street is prepared to see additional gold exports, but is nevertheless confident of a continuation of easy money market conditions.

Pittsburgh Coal was again the active feature of the local market. The common was nominally unchanged at 14¾ and closed at that price bid. The preferred, on the other hand, was weak and sold down to 64½, recovering only a small fraction of the loss and closing at 64½ bid. The uncertainty regarding the forthcoming dividend has apparently passed, and the expectation is that the regular rate will be declared, but sentiment among traders is rather bearish. There were no transaction in River Coal preferred, the stock closing at 24 bid, 25 asked. Manufacturers Light and Heat was moderately active within a range of 35⅝ to 35⅞, closing unchanged at 35¾. Pittsburgh Oil and Gas rallied to 63 on the sale of 10 shares. The Steel stocks were fairly active and firm. Crucible common rallied to 10⅝, and the preferred to 62. United States Steel common closed slightly higher, but the preferred receded to 89 at the close. Westinghouse Electric sold at 83, a decline of 2 points from the last previous sale, which, however, carried the dividend of $1.25 a share, so that the net loss was ¾. The rest of the market was very dull and without important change.

U. S. Steel preferred rallied to 100, but lost the gain.

Erie and the Pennsylvania group were active and closed slightly higher. The granger stocks reacted on profit-taking and closed lower.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The reaction in the New York stock market yesterday was regarded as entirely natural. There had been seven days of continuously rising values, the movement at times being in the face of adverse developments, and thereby indicating that it was of a more or less professional character. When outside interest began to increase, and particularly yesterday when London bought back some of the stock it had been selling for more than a week, it was natural that traders should seize the opportunity to take profits. The future of the market, and in a large measure of general business, will depend upon the outcome of the crops. This is the season when weather conditions are changeable enough to keep alive uncertainty, and there will be days of more or less violent fluctuations; but the tendency of security values is upward.

The outward movement of gold inaugurated Monday was much discussed in Wall street, and doubtless was the impelling motive for a good part of the selling. Great confidence was professed nevertheless that the present resources of our money market can spare a considerable outgo of gold on French demand. The money market, under normal conditions, materially affected, although a firmer tone was reported for time loans. The atmosphere of foreign politics was decidedly clearer and there was a smart recovery on the Paris bourse. With no available steamer sailing today the question of further gold exports this week was in suspense. The discount rate advanced, however, both in London and Paris, in spite of the relaxation of the political tension. Foreign exchange rates in New York were only slightly lower on foreign buying of stocks, the gold engaged for export evidently providing no supply of exchange for the market. It is supposed therefore that other causes than the flotation with Germany are responsible for the Paris demand for gold, possibly preparation for a Russian indemnity loan, as suggested in this column yesterday.

Atchison was not adversely affected by the May showing of earnings, which was published during the day. Gross earnings increased $508,000, but operating expenses increased $548,600, so that net earnings decreased about $42,000. For the 11 months of the fiscal year there is a decrease in net earnings of $3,077,000.

Crucible Steel preferred advanced ½ per cent to 93 on purchases of 500 shares, and the common advanced ¼ on purchases of 700 shares. The common stock is nearly 10 points below Republic common and the preferred 17 points below Republic preferred. The latter stock was very strong in the New York market yesterday. People who are familiar with the iron trade express the opinion that there is no good reason for the disparity in the prices of these two stocks, except that Republic Iron has the advantage of a broad market and interested insiders, while Crucible is restricted to the very narrow local market and insiders are more interested in selling steel than in manipulating the stock market.

Brewing stocks were dull, but prices were steady. At the current market Independent preferred pays about 8¾ per cent on the investment.

The Allegheny Trust Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent, payable July 1 to stock of record June 20.

The Ohio Valley Bank of Allegheny has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable July 1 to stock of record June 20.

The Provident Trust Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent.

Fayette County Gas advanced to 90 bid for regular lots and to 91 bid for 10 shares. Union Natural Gas was quoted at 109 bid, 110 asked.

Window Glass Machine preferred was quoted at 35½ bid, 37½ asked. The American Window Glass preferred was quoted at 30 bid, 40 asked.

If the governors of the New York stock exchange decide to close on Monday next, as well as on Tuesday, July 4, Pittsburgh will do likewise. New York advices stated that there was little probability of the double holiday.

The Monongahela City Trust Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend and added $10,000 to surplus fund, increasing the latter to $30,000.

The Duquesne National bank has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, payable June 29 to stock of record June 22.

The seventh dividend of the Calumet & Arizona was paid last week, making a total of $2,800,000 since December, 1902. The statement of the company shows that there are 1,800 stockholders, and the average holdings of each is 125 shares, costing $1,250 and worth on the present market $17,500.

National Fire Proofing preferred was steady at 34½. There were no transactions in the common.

A compilation of the recent official returns of the 5,668 national banks shows that on May 22 last their holdings of investment securities were $105,000,000 larger than at the corresponding date a year ago and $153,000,000 larger than on dates of statements of November 1904. These figures indicate the character of much of the buying in the stock market.

The Citizens National bank of Washington declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent and added $40,000 to its surplus, making it $765,000, the largest of any bank in the county. The bank will be 50 years old in September.

The organization of the Phoenix National bank, with a capital of $200,000 is progressing. About $150,000 of the proposed capital has been subscribed and those in charge have in view two locations. One is at Oliver and Liberty avenues and the other in Fourth avenue. J. S. Rodgers will be cashier of the new institution, and W. D. Hamilton, formerly of the Farmers Deposit National, will be assistant cashier.

The Financial Chronicle in its street railway supplement prints reports from 59 interurban railways, showing that the minimum fare per mile has risen from 2 cents to 2.37 cents. In almost all cases the 2 cent rate per mile is below that of competing steam roads and in some cases it is one-half and even one-third of the steam railroad rate. At top speed, the trolley roads make about 35 miles per hour, against about 30 miles per hour by the steam roads, assuming that the trolley lines can maintain their permanent way so that they can continue the present rate of speed with safety it is evident that their competition with steam roads will increase from year to year.

A Chicago dispatch said: "The failure of Knight Donnelly & Co. was a great surprise to the trade. Heavy expenses and dull trade are the cause of the failure. Chicago banks hold collateral to cover margins of over $100,000, and there will be no sacrifice liquidation. Their New York stock business was done through C. G. Gates & Co. Their petition states there is outstanding $250,000 in stock, bond and trade transactions all over the country."

National Lead is now in a position to go ahead with its plans to consummate the proposed lead merger, the stockholders having unanimously carried out the proposition of the directors to authorize an additional issue of stock to the extent of $20,000,000. President Cole is on record as saying that all of this stock is not to be issued at once. It is believed that a portion of it will be used to absorb certain competitors for which purpose negotiations have been going on for a long while.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices, in keeping with steady European cables and somewhat smaller primary receipts than expected. Business was very quiet, being largely continued, switching from near to late months, with there was a fair demand for July at existing differences, and the market closed dull, net unchanged to five points higher. Sales were 16,750 bags, including July at 6.45c, September at 6.60c, December at 6.90c, and May at 7.20c. Spot Rio quiet; No. 7 invoice, 7¼c; mild quiet. Sugar—Raw: quiet; fair refining, 3⅝c; centrifugal, 96 test, 4¼c; molasses sugar, 3⅜c. Refined quiet.

MINOR STEEL ISSUES ARE DAY'S FEATURE

Revival of Activity in These Stocks Seems Connected With Steel Pool Movement.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Herald (this (Wednesday) morning says:

That some progress had been made in the Wall street "campaign to change sentiment" was rather clearly indicated by the course of the stock market yesterday. Unquestionably, some little speculative buying has resulted from the long continued and aggressive movement to advance prices. The instant the professionals noted a disposition upon the part of outsiders to take hold of the market the work of distributing stock began. This resulted in recessions and that is about all there was to the market.

Instead of being discouraged by the reaction, the manipulators had reason to congratulate themselves on the success of the machine made movements, which rendered the sale of some stock possible. The reactions were quite extensive, when the high prices of the day are compared with the closing figures, but the market has been advanced so rapidly and has been so obviously manipulated, that some recession was obviously due.

News developments upon the whole, were generally better. The fact that the market reacted in the face of better developments went a long way toward confirming the theory that the chief object of the present movement is to distribute or "sandbag" the public with stocks. A few issues, notably Union Pacific, were run up sharply at the opening, the better to conceal the distribution movement. The purpose and the methods employed to carry it into effect appeared to e the chief influencing factor in yesterday's market.

Foreign news was better, particularly so in respect to the Franco-German attitude over Morocco. International money market was mixed. There were further advances in discounts in London, Paris and elsewhere on the continent, but the price of bar gold caused in London, and exchange rates, both in Paris and New York, moved temporarily against further gold exports from New York. This is regarded as only temporary, however. Crop advices were highly confusing. Staple markets reported them as unfavorable.

Probably the feature of the day was the revival of activity in the other steel issues. This appeared to be in some way connected with the post movement in United States Steel. The latter issues, after making further advances, ran off rapidly. Tennessee Coal and Iron, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Republic Iron and Steel and Sloss-Sheffield all figured in the movement. The movements appeared to be purely manipulative, despite the reports of some impending developments in Republic Iron and Steel. The memory of the recent "slaughter of the innocents" in the minor steel properties, did not appear to be entirely effaced, and no public interest in the movement were reported.

THE MONEY MARKET.

A somewhat easier tone is reported to the local money market, but rates remain unchanged at 2@3 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

	Clearings.	Balances.
Yesterday	$8,653,716 88	$1,547,462 84
Last week	7,779,947 27	1,478,784 60

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, June 27.—Money was in active request in the market today on the approach of the half-year end. Discounts were strengthetically firm. Trading on the stock exchange was quiet, operators being mainly occupied with the carry-over. The tone was cheerful and there was less nervousness over Franco-German relations. Consols recovered and home rails improved. Americans opened firm, were strengthened by New York support, became fairly active, and after a slight reaction closed firm. Foreigners had an uncertain tone. Russians rallied from their opening heaviness. Japanese were weak on rumors of a new loan. Imperial Japanese 6s of 1904 were quoted at 105¾. Consols for money 79 1-16d; consols for account 79⅝d; bar silver steady, 27d per ounce; money 1½@2 per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2 1-16@2⅛ per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for three months bills 2 1-16@2⅛ per cent.

PARIS, June 27.—Prices on the bourse today were very firm owing to the more optimistic feeling in regard to the extreme situation. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 89.20 and Russian bonds of 1901 at 85¾. The private rate of discount was 2¾ per cent. Three per cent

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, June 27.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of banks at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices, today's official records show that the subtreasury paid out yesterday $74,013. Total thus paid since Friday, $226,564, against $37,116 for the same period a week ago. Total payments by government to New York banks for the day, $3,379,000. Payment by banks to government, $4,454,000. Balance on the day in transactions, $1,075,000 paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $375,000, against $3,388,000 paid by government to banks for the corresponding period a week ago, and $575,000 paid by government to banks a year ago.

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balance, $130,676,645; gold, $64,580,273; silver, $32,227,651; United States notes, $14,250,875; treasury notes of 1890, $7,175; national bank notes, $10,227,651; total receipts for the day, $1,450,335; total receipts this month, $40,790,962; total receipts this year, $736,171,072; total expenditures this day, $1,500,000; total expenditures this month, $51,870,000; total expenditures this year, $674,586,774; deposits in national banks, $82,454,787.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Close prime mercantile paper 3½@4¼ per cent. Sterling exchange easy, with actual business bankers bills at $4.86@4.86.15 for demand and at $4.83.70@4.83.75 for 60 day bills. Posted rates 486 and 488. Commercial bills 485. Bar silver 55⅝. Mexican dollars 45½. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds steady. Money on call steady, 1¾@2 per cent. Closing bid 1¾; offered at 2. Time loans firmer—60 days 2 per cent; 90 days 2¼ per cent; six months 2¾@2¾.

Pig Iron Certificates Market.

PRODUCE MARKET SHOWS SLIGHT DROP IN PRICES

Old Potatoes Are Cheaper Than for Several Years and Will Soon Be Done.

Of a number of changes in quotations made yesterday, almost all of them were downward. Old potatoes have dropped to 15 and 20 cents a bushel by the carload, and 20 and 25 cents in smaller lots. At these prices they will scarcely pay for shipping, and it is not likely that many more will come in. The immense potato crop of last year and the consequent low prices caused many farmers not to plant this year. As a result the acreage is much less and it is probable prices will be considerably higher next season than they were last.

Berries suffered a sharp reduction yesterday, as nearly of them came in and the demand was a little slack. They are in excellent condition. Other green goods were also marked down. Poultry shows some sign of getting down to summer prices. Live springers are now quoted at 18 and 20 cents. They were 30 cents a couple of weeks ago.

The grocery trade was quiet yesterday, with no further changes to report in any line. Flour is still doggedly sticking to quotations given, but shading is going on on all sides and a break would not be surprising at any moment. Sugar was quiet yesterday, but there is little doing in that line.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 9 cars hay, 11½ cars oats, 3 cars feed, 1 car straw, 2½ cars corn; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 2 cars oats; Baltimore & Ohio, 4 cars hay, 2 cars oats, 1 car corn.

The market was steady yesterday in all lines, with a tendency toward another advance in prices. The western market continues to advance, and it will not be long until this movement is felt here. Quotations remained stationary yesterday, but dealers look for some advance today.

BULLISH SENTIMENT IN THE WHEAT MARKET

Continued Wet Weather in the Northwest Is Responsible for It—July Up a Cent.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 27.—Continued wet weather in the northwest encouraged bullish sentiment today in the wheat trade. At the close wheat for July delivery was up 1¢. Expectation of diminishing receipts of corn was accompanied by aggressive buying on the part of bull leaders and caused a net advance of 2½c. Oats show a gain of ½@¾c. Provisions are practically unchanged.

The wheat market showed greatest strength just before the close, but distant deliveries had a firm tone throughout the entire session. At times, however, the July option was under considerable selling pressure and exhibited a weak undertone. Additional rain in the northwest caused by a firm opening, initial quotations on July being up ½@¾c at 90@90¼c. September was up ½@¾c at 86¼@86¾c. Soon after the opening, July weakened under selling by pit traders, the price dropping to 89¾c. The cause of this selling pressure was excellent harvesting weather in the southwest. The slump in July had only a slight effect on other months, September selling off to 84⅝@84¾c, but quickly regained the loss. The recovering was due to an active general demand. Throughout the day the probability of a liberal movement of new wheat in the near future had a bearish effect on the July option, but the more distant deliveries were little affected thereby, the possibility of damage by rust to the spring sown crop being regarded as a much more potent influence. Another factor that helped to strengthen prices late in the day was a decrease in primary receipts, arrivals today being 231,700 bushels, compared with 349,000 bushels a year ago. A strong market at Minneapolis was a futher help to bulls here. The Chicago market became increasingly bullish during the last half hour of trading, September advancing to 86¾@86⅞c, July sold up to 90c. The market closed strong and almost at the highest point of the day, with July at 90c. Final quotations on September were at 86¾c, a net gain of 1¾c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 20,600 bushels. The world's visible supply as shown by Bradstreet's decreased 3,853,000 bushels. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 331 cars against 190 cars last week and 259 cars a year ago.

Sentiment in the corn pit was extremely bullish the entire day. A prominent commission house was an active bidder, and under this leadership shorts covered freely. With comparatively small clearings prices were easily forced upward. Factors that contributed to the strength were firm cables and wet weather in many sections of the corn belt. An excellent demand for cash corn gave additional impetus to the options trading. The market closed unusually strong, with prices practically at the highest point. July opened ¼@¼c higher at 54⅜@54½c, sold up to 54¾c and closed at 56¾c. September opened unchanged to ⅜c higher, at 54½@54⅝c, sold up to 55¾c and closed at the top. Local receipts were 342 cars, with 242 cars of contract grade.

Strength of corn had a bullish effect on the oats market. The volume of trading was quite large. July opened a shade lower to a shade higher, at 32½c@33¼c, sold between 33¾c and 32¾c@33⅝c and closed at 31¼c. Local receipts were 198 cars.

Provisions were steady, following a 5c advance in the price of live hogs. At the close September pork was up 2½c at $13 62½, lard and ribs were each off a shade at $7 47½@7 50 and 28 90, respectively.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 4 cars; corn, 372 cars; oats, 85 cars; hogs, 34,000 head.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The Black Mountain Mining Company has issued a call for 20 per cent payment on its capital stock, amounting to $1 per share, or $160,000 in all. This will leave another 20 per cent call coming later, and it is now expected that the full par value will be called in. Inside of one month it is believed that not more than $3, or at the most $3.50, would be needed to develop the property. The present call becomes delinquent August 1, and the last will be made the close of this year. Very soon after that the 120-stamp mill will be in operation, turning out about $2,000 daily.

Sinking continues at the Calumet & Pittsburgh, and a third shift has been started at the briggs shaft. Progress will therefore be more rapid. Last week the depth gained was three feet only. Water does not gain as depth is increased, in fact is slowly diminishing.

The Junction last week gained nine feet, and is now pumping more water than ever. At the 1,000-foot level it will drift both ways into Junction and toward the Briggs shaft. The Junction shaft is precisely on the line of the Pittsburgh ground.

The Grayson Mining Company has bought the Quinlan claims in the Santa Cruz Pass district, close to the New Mexican line, for $175,000.

The old Silver Bell Imperial Mining Company, near Tucson, is shipping about a hundred tons of ore daily to the Queen smelter at Douglas. In the time this company has had the mine, little over a year, it has proved up a fine property and has done more than 12,000 feet of work underground.

There have been unexpected delays in the completion of the Cole shaft, Lake Superior mine, and it will not be hoisting ore for some time yet, contrary to many reports that have been made.

The Shattuck is now down more than 700 feet and is getting a flow of about 250 gallons of water per minute, more than any of the properties at that end of the district have yet had. Statements that this shaft was in ore are quite premature, as it has been in only a little more than the 700-foot level and has not reached the ore body as yet. Prospects, however, are thought to be fine, and are certainly encouraging.

Boilers, compressors, hoist and other machinery are installing at the Oliver shaft of the Calumet & Arizona mine, and the shaft will be in commission next month. It has developed one of the largest sulphide ore bodies of the camp, and has more than doubled the value of the proved ground of the mine. The addition of this shaft will not, for the present, materially increase the tonnage of ore coming out of the mine, for smelting capacity will not permit any great increase.

The Dean shaft at Bisbee is going down at the rate of 12 feet a month, and is expected to reach good ground at about 700 feet. There has been a statement that a drift on the shaft the company whereupon showed 200 feet of ore, but this was not true. It did show a considerable distance of limestone and leached material, but not ore.

The pumping plant at Tombstone Consolidated will be of capacity for 6,000,000 gallons a day when the additions recently ordered have been installed. This is one of the biggest plants in the world. Tunnel-stone lifts water from about 300 feet.

The Metal Markets.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The London tin market was a little higher, closing at £139 12s 6d for spot, and £132 7s 6d for futures. Locally the market was quiet but steady, with spot bid at $30 25@30 37½. Copper also was firmer in London, closing at £67 for spot and £66 7s 6d for futures. Locally the market continues to be a little firmer in tone, although there is no appreciable change in prices. Lake and electrolytic are generally quoted at $13 87½, and casting at $13 75. Lead was higher at £13 2s 6d in London, and continues firm at $4 50@4 60 in the local market. Spelter was unchanged at £24 in London, and at 6 30 in the local market. Iron closed at 52s 8d in Glasgow, and at £4 6s in Middlesboro. Locally the market is without further change. No. 1 foundry, northern, is quoted at $16 50@16 75; No. 1 foundry, northern, at $16 25@16 50; No. 1 foundry, southern, and No. 1 foundry, southern soft, at $15 75@16 25, and No. 2 foundry, southern, at $15 25@15 75.

BOSTON June 27.—The market for copper today continued active, but not as strong as yesterday. Allouez came out there freely and toward the close sold at 26. The manipulation of Copper Range was continued, but the demand around 60 was very good and the stock held firm on any offers. Tecumseh opened strong at 4 bid, but on an order to sell 1,000 shares at the market it declined to 3¾. The decline on 40 of only $2 by Osceola was disappointing to the traders and Osceola and Mohawk were freely sold during most of the day.

B. & O. OFFICERS WELL PLEASED

Station Plans About Ready—N. Y. C. Lines Are to Adopt Standard Signals.

CRANE ON THE DIFFERENTIAL

The special Baltimore & Ohio inspection train, bearing President Oscar G. Murray and several other high officers of the company, arrived at the Water street station at 6 o'clock last evening. The day was spent in an inspection of the main line and branches in the "River district," as the portion of the Pittsburgh division between Pittsburgh and Connellsville is known. This forenoon will be spent inspecting the Pittsburgh terminals in private car 910, used by Chief Engineer D. D. Carothers. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the party will leave Allegheny in a special train of six private cars for an inspection of the Pittsburgh & Western branch of the Pittsburgh division to Butler, the party continuing northward to Mt. Jewett over the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railway for an inspection of the Baltimore & Ohio narrow gauge line from Kane to Foxburg and the standard gauge road from Foxburg to Butler.

President Murray and the other officers expressed themselves as well pleased with conditions. No word was given for publication regarding contemplated improvements in or about Pittsburgh, further than Chief Engineer Carothers saying that he has the plans practically completed for the larger terminal building at Water and Smithfield streets than was originally planned; it is not known when this work will be begun, but the impression is that it will be several months from now, and probably not until next year. Mr. Carothers also said that no definite route has been determined for the new line of the road in connection with the old South Penn; surveyors are still at work on this proposed line. The president's party will ride over the new roadway from Hazleton to Newton Falls, which, as was announced in The Gazette last Sunday, is to be opened for freight service next Sunday and for passenger service July 15.

While the officers have been on the road they have seen an immense amount of freight moving, indicating a prosperous condition. General Manager Thomas Fitzgerald said that so far as the Baltimore & Ohio is concerned there is no shortage of cars, although there is a heavy traffic movement. He and General Superintendent of Motive Power J. E. Muhlfeld said that by fall the road will be as well equipped for handling the traffic as any road in the country. This will be made possible by the road receiving 10,000 new freight cars and about 250 new engines.

First Vice President George F. Randolph has been slightly indisposed during the trip. He says the traffic conditions are excellent. Regarding the Pittsburgh appointment or appointments to be made because of the promotion of H. M. Matthews from division freight agent and coal and coke agent here to general coal and coke agent at Baltimore, Mr. Randolph said this matter is in the hands of Manager Freight Traffic C. S. Wright, who was not able to be with the party because of urgent matters in the east. The announcement will probably be made in a day or two, as Mr. Matthews is to assume his new office July 1.

Aside from the above-named officers there are in the party: Third Vice President G. L. Potter, Chief Engineer Maintenance of Way J. B. Dickson, Real Estate Agent J. D. McCubbin and Purchasing Agent E. H. Bankard of Baltimore; General Freight Agent L. Rush Brocken-brough, Division Freight Agents H. M. Matthews and W. L. Cromlish, General Superintendent Robert Finney, Engineer Maintenance of Way H. H. Temple, Superintendent B. W. Duer and Division Engineer L. P. Rossiter of Pittsburgh.

The remainder of this week will be occupied inspecting the western and northern lines of the Pittsburgh system, the party spending tonight in the train at Mt. Jewett, tomorrow night at Sharpsville and Friday night at Akron.

C. S. Crane Is in Town.

Charles S. Crane, general passenger and ticket agent of the Wabash system, arrived in Pittsburgh last evening, with Assistant General Passenger Agent F. H. Tristram, from Cleveland. Mr. Crane is making a tour of the company's offices and will go from here to Buffalo tomorrow. Asked what he thought of the arbitrator's decision in the Michigan Central case, announced June 20, he replied: "Well, the Michigan Central is just where it was. There is no getting around the arbitrator's decision. It was to the effect that the Michigan Central was entitled to as low rates as applied on any line on that date. That was one June 20, and there was a rate of $20 for the New York Central at that time; the Michigan Central uses the New York Central from Buffalo to Grand Central station, New York, and so must abide by the decision. To ask for another arbitration in the matter is like asking, for another flip of the coin after the first has settled the matter."

This is Mr. Crane's first visit to Pittsburgh since the anniversary meeting of the General American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents, March 13. He says that the circular recently issued by him to all Wabash system employes for assistance as "passenger agents" is showing good results.

Important Wabash Circulars.

Under date of July 1 General Manager Henry Miller of the Wabash announces that the jurisdiction of the superintendent of motive power and of the master mechanics on their respective divisions will be extended over the car department.

Superintendent H. W. McMaster of the Wheeling & Lake Erie announces by circular the abolition of the special service department of the road and directs that matters formerly reported to that department now be forwarded to the superintendent's office. C. W. Winslow, freight claim agent, Pittsburgh, will look after damages and pilfering of freight.

General Passenger Agent C. S. Crane announces the appointment of Charles J. Sayles as city freight agent of the Wabash at Council Bluffs, Ia.

Popular B. & O. Veteran Is Ill.

Thomas E. Newman, road foreman of engines on the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio, was reported last evening to be confined to his home in Hazelwood in a critical condition, suffering from neuralgia of the heart. Mr. Newman was taken ill at the Deer Park meeting last week, but felt better Sunday. His condition has cast a gloom over the local Baltimore & Ohio men, while the higher officials learned of his serious condition with regret last evening. Mr. Newman has been in the service of the company for a quarter of a century or more, serving as fireman, brakeman, conductor, engineman and road foreman of engines.

Consider Standard for Signals.

The signal committee of the New York Central lines has been holding a meeting at Boston to determine upon a standard signal system to be installed upon all of the lines. The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad's signal system, recognized to be almost perfect in operations, is represented by Assistant Chief Engineer A. R. Rayner. It is expected that a standard form will be adopted. Whether this form will be the electric automatic, like that of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, is not known, although the record of the operations of this system will be a strong point in its favor.

Railroad Notes.

Assistant Engineer E. F. Wendt and Resident Engineer R. M. Pearce made a business trip over the main line of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

John R. Glenn, Panhandle baggagemaster at Birmingham for the past quarter of a century, has returned to duty after being off duty two months on account of illness.

The Pittsburgh Construction Company has received a contract from the Carnegie Steel Company to furnish about 200,000 cubic yards or 30,000 carloads of ballast for the Wabash-Union railroad connection. The ballast will be slag from the hot-cinder dumps.

H. J. Falkenbach, commercial agent of the national lines of Mexico, has received word that George W. Hibbard, formerly general passenger agent of the national lines, as successor to Jackson Smith, resigned.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie engineering department has awarded to the Nicola Building Company a contracts for erecting an eight-stall brick and steel roundhouse at College. The construction of concrete arches and concrete arch extensions for the third and fourth track work between "SY" tower and Aliquippa park was given in three contracts to Stratton-Lewis & Co., the McKelvey-Hine Company and Cadwallader & Robinson.
